President Suspends Helmand, Nuristan Governors: Source

KABUL - The governors of southern Helmand and eastern Nuristan provinces have been suspended, but both the governors said they were unaware of the decision. A source close to the government told Pajhwok Afghan News that President Ashraf Ghani had suspended Helmand Governor Mirza Khan Rahimi and Nuristan governor Hafiz Abdul Qayom due to their weak management. The communications and information technology, education, information and culture and higher education directors would also be suspended due to their poor performance and culture and higher education directors would also be suspended due to their poor performance.

Serious Anti-Corruption, Anti-Terrorism Fight is Needed: Massoud

KABUL - Ahmad Zia Massoud, president’s special envoy for reform and good governance on Friday said terrorists have been implementing the strategies of intelligence agencies of the region in Afghanistan. During the first death anniversary of Hamidullah Haqmal, the former police chief of Ghazni district in southern Helmand province, Massoud said that terrorists don’t recognize any tribe and religion, but they only implement the strategies given by the intelligence agencies of the region. Haqmal was killed last year as a result of a roadside bombing in Ghazni district of Helmand province. "In order to bring political stability and cultural development for the country, it is our national and religious duty to fight against terrorism," he said. (Pajhwok)

Pakistan, Afghanistan Return to War of Words

PUL-E-ALAM - A number of scholars in central Logar province on Thursday accused the government of failing to keep the promise of giving them land plots, but the authorities said they were ready to build four townships for education officials. Bush Nooruddin, a teacher at the Jamshaid School in Pul-e-Alam, said, "(More on Pk-5)."

JCMB to Meet Next Week on Gov’t’s Commitments

KABUL - The Joint Coordination and Monitoring Board (JCMB) is scheduled to meet next week in Kabul on how to implement demands of the international community ahead of NATO’s Warsaw and Brussels summits, the Ministry of Finance (MoF) said on Thursday. The meeting, which may be held on Monday under the chairmanship of President, "(More on Pk-6)."

Turkey Pledges Continued Military Support to Afghanistan

KABUL - Turkey has pledged continued military support to Afghanistan in the format of NATO-led Resolute Support (RS) mission, the country’s Chief of Army Staff Hulusi Akar said. Akar arrived to Afghanistan and met with President Mohammad Ashraf Ghani to discuss bilateral relations between Kabul and Ankara and cooperation between the two nations. According to a statement by ARG Presidential Palace, Akar emphasized on "(More on Pk-7)."

If Not Allotted Land Plots, Logar Teachers to Quit

PUL-E-ALAM - A number of schoolteachers in central Logar province on Thursday accused the government of failing to keep the promise of giving them land plots, but the authorities said they were ready to build four townships for education officials. Bush Nooruddin, a teacher at the Jamshaid School in Pul-e-Alam, said, "(More on Pk-5)."

Govt. Terms NATO, US Troops’ Presence Effective

KABUL - The Presidential Palace on Thursday termed the presence of NATO and US troops in the war against terrorism as effective and necessary. However, the deputy spokesman for President Ashraf Ghani, Seyed Jalal Hashemi, said that it was the duty of US politicians to decide the future of US. "(More on Pk-6)."

Quote of the Day

Desiderius Erasmus

Give light, and the darkness will disappear of itself.

The Latest iPhone on the Most Advanced 3G Network in Afghanistan

Enjoy our FREE benefits with the latest iPhones

* Afghan Wireless to Afghan Wireless

Price: 15/-Afs

www.outlookafghanistan.net

President Suspends Helmand, Nuristan Governors: Source

KABUL - The governors of southern Helmand and eastern Nuristan provinces have been suspended, but both the governors said they were unaware of the decision. A source close to the government told Pajhwok Afghan News that President Ashraf Ghani had suspended Helmand Governor Mirza Khan Rahimi and Nuristan governor Hafiz Abdul Qayom due to their weak management. The communications and information technology, education, information and culture and higher education directors would also be suspended due to their poor performance and culture and higher education directors would also be suspended due to their poor performance.

Serious Anti-Corruption, Anti-Terrorism Fight is Needed: Massoud

KABUL - Ahmad Zia Massoud, president’s special envoy for reform and good governance on Friday said terrorists have been implementing the strategies of intelligence agencies of the region in Afghanistan. During the first death anniversary of Hamidullah Haqmal, the former police chief of Ghazni district in southern Helmand province, Massoud said that terrorists don’t recognize any tribe and religion, but they only implement the strategies given by the intelligence agencies of the region. Haqmal was killed last year as a result of a roadside bombing in Ghazni district of Helmand province. "In order to bring political stability and cultural development for the country, it is our national and religious duty to fight against terrorism," he said. (Pajhwok)

Pakistan, Afghanistan Return to War of Words

PUL-E-ALAM - A number of scholars in central Logar province on Thursday accused the government of failing to keep the promise of giving them land plots, but the authorities said they were ready to build four townships for education officials. Bush Nooruddin, a teacher at the Jamshaid School in Pul-e-Alam, said, "(More on Pk-5)."

JCMB to Meet Next Week on Gov’t’s Commitments

KABUL - The Joint Coordination and Monitoring Board (JCMB) is scheduled to meet next week in Kabul on how to implement demands of the international community ahead of NATO’s Warsaw and Brussels summits, the Ministry of Finance (MoF) said on Thursday. The meeting, which may be held on Monday under the chairmanship of President, "(More on Pk-6)."

Turkey Pledges Continued Military Support to Afghanistan

KABUL - Turkey has pledged continued military support to Afghanistan in the format of NATO-led Resolute Support (RS) mission, the country’s Chief of Army Staff Hulusi Akar said. Akar arrived to Afghanistan and met with President Mohammad Ashraf Ghani to discuss bilateral relations between Kabul and Ankara and cooperation between the two nations. According to a statement by ARG Presidential Palace, Akar emphasized on "(More on Pk-7)."

If Not Allotted Land Plots, Logar Teachers to Quit

PUL-E-ALAM - A number of schoolteachers in central Logar province on Thursday accused the government of failing to keep the promise of giving them land plots, but the authorities said they were ready to build four townships for education officials. Bush Nooruddin, a teacher at the Jamshaid School in Pul-e-Alam, said, "(More on Pk-5)."

Govt. Terms NATO, US Troops’ Presence Effective

KABUL - The Presidential Palace on Thursday termed the presence of NATO and US troops in the war against terrorism as effective and necessary. However, the deputy spokesman for President Ashraf Ghani, Seyed Jalal Hashemi, said that it was the duty of US politicians to decide the future of US. "(More on Pk-6)."

Quote of the Day

Desiderius Erasmus

Give light, and the darkness will disappear of itself.

The Latest iPhone on the Most Advanced 3G Network in Afghanistan

Enjoy our FREE benefits with the latest iPhones

* Afghan Wireless to Afghan Wireless

Price: 15/-Afs

www.outlookafghanistan.net