Javed Bayat and discussed issues around regional security and the em-gagement of the United States between the two. Bayat had previously worked for SMI and the US government and has been a vehicle diplomat with a focus on Afghanistan. Bayat is currently working on a project for the US Department of State and has been involved in various initiatives related to regional security and peace. He was a key figure in the formation of the Afghanistan Paciﬁcation Program and has worked extensively on issues regarding the Afghan government's efforts to improve security and stability in the country. Bayat has also been involved in several international initiatives aimed at promoting peace and development in the region. He was recently appointed as the Special Representative for Afghan Reconciliation by the US government.

2) 3 Killed, 19 Wounded...
A 22-year-old girl and a woman were killed and another child was killed, including four children, and two women, wounded.
Afghanistan: At least 19 people were killed and 2 wounded when a suicide attacker on Wednesday killed two women and 19 others wounded in a blast at a hospital in a market in Kabul. The attack was carried out by a bomber who was using a vehicle-mounted bomb. The attacker was identified as a member of the Taliban. The attack took place in the background of the Afghan peace negotiations and the ongoing talks between the government and the Taliban. The Afghan government has condemned the attack and expressed its solidarity with the families of the victims.
