Migration Crisis Should Be Tackled

By Hadjiullah Zia

April 10 2016

Health Facilities Must Improve

The April 10 was celebrated as World Health Day by World Health Organization (WHO). Every year the day is celebrated with a theme. This year’s theme was “Health Systems and the SDGs: Strengthening Health Systems towards Universal Health Coverage.”

Unfortunately two-thirds of pharmacies do not have professional staff. The people instead of supporting them during their ill health.

At the same time, corruption and loose control, regarding the health facilities.

If there are such facilities provided in the country, the people can, in no way, be afforded by the people who do not have enough money.

Most of the people are compelled to go to other countries for treatment.

On the other hand private hospitals have been established that are not established in most of the remote areas; therefore, most of the people suffer from stay untreated even in the large cities of the country.

At the same time, the quality of services provided by government hospitals is very low, their number is not sufficient and they are not established in most of the remote areas; therefore, most of the people do not have access to them.

One government hand private hospitals have been established that can, in no way, be afforded by the people who do not have enough money.

Most of the people are compelled to go to other countries for treatment. They mostly go to the neighboring countries like India and Pakistan.

Most of the people are compelled to go to other countries for treatment. They mostly go to the neighboring countries like India and Pakistan.

As a result, Afghan nation suffered great casualties last year due to the Taliban’s spring offensive and forces to abandon their homes.

The repairation of the refugees will be discussed in the two-day summit - which is going to be organized at the initiative of UN Secretary General Ban Ki-moon on May 23. The summit will bring together governments, humanitarian organizations, people affected by humanitarian crisis and new partners as well as the private sector to propose solutions to the most pressing challenges and set an agenda for securing the future of global humanitarian action.

Similarly, a large number of Afghan families were displaced internally due to escalated militancy and terrorist activities in remote parts of the country.

As a result, Afghan nation suffered great casualties last year due to the Taliban’s spring offensive and forces to abandon their homes.

The repairation of the refugees will be discussed in the two-day summit - which is going to be organized at the initiative of UN Secretary General Ban Ki-moon on May 23. The summit will bring together governments, humanitarian organizations, people affected by humanitarian crisis and new partners as well as the private sector to propose solutions to the most pressing challenges and set an agenda for securing the future of global humanitarian action.

Similarly, a large number of Afghan families were displaced internally due to escalated militancy and terrorist activities in remote parts of the country.

As a result, Afghan nation suffered great casualties last year due to the Taliban’s spring offensive and forces to abandon their homes.