Our Role against the Evils in Society

N ot have the right to complain about them and we do not have any responsibility and be very much vigilant. They know that using such drugs may lead them towards negative because they are totally indifferent towards the issue. Though in some cases people do so because they are not fully sisters. And when there are cruel incidents of violence against fathers beating their daughters and brothers being violent to their cial evil. The society members do not consider it inhuman and un-

For example, the violence against women in Afghanistan has been - demonstrations on the issues that are not vital for the people of ally very sad; there has not been any comprehensive movement and it has kept on feeding corruption to a great extent.

The example of Afghan society in this regard is very much rele