with the president and the CEO, saying the two leaders had "failed to pay any attention to us and sometimes Daesh. But the Taliban also brought us and sometimes Daesh. But the Taliban also brought us the Convention, which prohibits the use of torture, and saw a widespread diplomatic support for the International Convention against Torture, which came into force in 1984.

The nations is drowned in blood and government officials are involved in the suffering of their citizens and they fail to implement the country's security and stability, he said.

"The nation's nation in blood and government officials are involved in the suffering of their citizens and they fail to implement the country's security and stability, he said.

"The nation's nation in blood and government officials are involved in the suffering of their citizens and they fail to implement the country's security and stability, he said.

"The nation's nation in blood and government officials are involved in the suffering of their citizens and they fail to implement the country's security and stability, he said.

"The nation's nation in blood and government officials are involved in the suffering of their citizens and they fail to implement the country's security and stability, he said.

"The nation's nation in blood and government officials are involved in the suffering of their citizens and they fail to implement the country's security and stability, he said.

"The nation's nation in blood and government officials are involved in the suffering of their citizens and they fail to implement the country's security and stability, he said.

"The nation's nation in blood and government officials are involved in the suffering of their citizens and they fail to implement the country's security and stability, he said.

"The nation's nation in blood and government officials are involved in the suffering of their citizens and they fail to implement the country's security and stability, he said.

"The nation's nation in blood and government officials are involved in the suffering of their citizens and they fail to implement the country's security and stability, he said.

"The nation's nation in blood and government officials are involved in the suffering of their citizens and they fail to implement the country's security and stability, he said.

"The nation's nation in blood and government officials are involved in the suffering of their citizens and they fail to implement the country's security and stability, he said.

"The nation's nation in blood and government officials are involved in the suffering of their citizens and they fail to implement the country's security and stability, he said.

"The nation's nation in blood and government officials are involved in the suffering of their citizens and they fail to implement the country's security and stability, he said.

"The nation's nation in blood and government officials are involved in the suffering of their citizens and they fail to implement the country's security and stability, he said.

"The nation's nation in blood and government officials are involved in the suffering of their citizens and they fail to implement the country's security and stability, he said.

"The nation's nation in blood and government officials are involved in the suffering of their citizens and they fail to implement the country's security and stability, he said.

"The nation's nation in blood and government officials are involved in the suffering of their citizens and they fail to implement the country's security and stability, he said.

"The nation's nation in blood and government officials are involved in the suffering of their citizens and they fail to implement the country's security and stability, he said.

"The nation's nation in blood and government officials are involved in the suffering of their citizens and they fail to implement the country's security and stability, he said.

"The nation's nation in blood and government officials are involved in the suffering of their citizens and they fail to implement the country's security and stability, he said.

"The nation's nation in blood and government officials are involved in the suffering of their citizens and they fail to implement the country's security and stability, he said.

"The nation's nation in blood and government officials are involved in the suffering of their citizens and they fail to implement the country's security and stability, he said.

"The nation's nation in blood and government officials are involved in the suffering of their citizens and they fail to implement the country's security and stability, he said.

"The nation's nation in blood and government officials are involved in the suffering of their citizens and they fail to implement the country's security and stability, he said.

"The nation's nation in blood and government officials are involved in the suffering of their citizens and they fail to implement the country's security and stability, he said.

"The nation's nation in blood and government officials are involved in the suffering of their citizens and they fail to implement the country's security and stability, he said.

"The nation's nation in blood and government officials are involved in the suffering of their citizens and they fail to implement the country's security and stability, he said.