Sar-i-Pul - Taliban militants have laid siege to the center of Sar-i-Pul district in northern Sar-i-Pul province, a public representative and officials said on Monday.

Asfakullah Khairam, a provincial council member who has been stuck in the district’s center for the last three months, told Pajhwok Afghan News over the telephone that the Basharabad area of the district had been captured by the Taliban militants. He said the Taliban were only one kilometer away from the district building and were likely to capture the district’s center and both of them were killed.

Zabiullah Amani, the governor’s spokesman, also confirmed to Pajhwok Afghan News that the district was under high threat from the rebels, but said reinforcements had reached the district to normalize the situation.

He also said Taliban militants stormed security check-posts in Baghawi and Safiqul localities of Sar-i-Pul, the provincial capital, last Sunday night. In the clashes,
