ANSF Engaged in Offensive Operations in 12 Provinces

KABUL - The Ministry of Defence (MoD) said the Afghan National Security Forces (ANSF) are engaged in offensive operations in at least 12 provinces.

MoD spokesman, Dawlat Waziri, said currently 15 offensive operations were conducted by the Afghan National Army (ANA) and Afghan National Police (ANP) against the Taliban in nine provinces. Furthermore, he added, the Taliban militants launched an attack in Kunduz but it was repulsed by the Afghan forces, causing human casualties and collateral damage.

Waziri said, according to reports, at least 40 militants were killed and 90 others wounded during the gun battle triggered as a result of the attack. The Afghan forces have increased their ongoing interdiction operations against the militants among the Taliban-led insurgency.

Waziri said Friday that the Afghan News Agency (ANA) reported that 20 Taliban rebels who were involved in the burning of one of the hospitals in Kunduz were killed.

Kandahar-10 MW Solar Power Plant in Doldums

KANDAHAR CITY - Power utility officials in southern Kandahar province have announced that 10 MW solar power plant project will soon launch in the city.

The construction of the solar project is being done by Danish Tech Corporation in Kandahar. When ready, it will be supplied within the month to Kandahar and its partner to produce 60,000 single serving ice pouches daily, equating to 2,000,000 lines per year.

The soymilk pouches will be produced with refrigeration. It's the latest soymilk factory that will be established by the Power utility officials in Kandahar province.

Lashkargah-Sangin Road Opens after Year-Long Closure

BHUKTIAN - Afghan security forces have reopened the road between Sangin district in southern Helmand province and Lashkargah, the provincial capital,

The residents of Kandahar province say the project will help them acquire land and stretch of road as part of a $10 million solar power project and the assisting organization has stepped work on the plant's construction work.

Kandahar-Afghanistan - Afghan security forces have reopened the road between Sangin district in southern Helmand province and Lashkargah, the provincial capital.

The Afghan News Agency (ANA) reported that 20 Taliban rebels who were involved in the burning of one of the hospitals in Kunduz were killed.

Waziri said Friday that the Afghan News Agency (ANA) reported that 20 Taliban rebels who were involved in the burning of one of the hospitals in Kunduz were killed.

3 Female Chechen Militants among 10 Killed in Logar Operations

KABUL - At least seven security personnel and three female Chechen militants were among those killed in an attack near Firuzkhil district in Logar province.

Abdul Rahman, a local official, said the attack by Taliban militants near Firuzkhil in Logar province was repulsed.

No details were yet available on the fatalities and the incident was being investigated by the Afghan security forces.

4 Police, 5 Taliban Dead in Farah Clashes

FAIRY Meadows - Six policemen and five Taliban militants were killed during separate clashes in Pindar district of each other. The residents of Bala Buluk districts and Aqcha and Charchino districts of Farah province said on Saturday.

Security officials in the province confirmed that scores of Taliban militants were killed in separate security operations.

Governor Dubs Kunduz City Security as ‘Satisfactory’

KUNDUZ CITY - The Kunduz city has been described as ‘satisfactory’ by Governor Asadullah Khan Watan, the capital of northern Kunduz province.

But a security official, who was appointed, told Pajhwok Afghan News that Taliban militants captured four police stations of Kunduz-Khanabad Road and attack 10 Afghan Local (ALP) personnel.

Government Asadullah Khan Watan and several people in Kunduz City said the security situation in the provincial capital had improved and there was nothing to be worried about. He told Pajhwok Afghan News that the Taliban attack has been thwarted in most cases and assured that there was no major threat.

Hajj is usually one of the biggest financial outlays of the provincial capital.

The Afghan News Agency (ANA) reported that 20 Taliban rebels who were involved in the burning of one of the hospitals in Kunduz were killed.

Waziri said Friday that the Afghan News Agency (ANA) reported that 20 Taliban rebels who were involved in the burning of one of the hospitals in Kunduz were killed.

Waziri said Friday that the Afghan News Agency (ANA) reported that 20 Taliban rebels who were involved in the burning of one of the hospitals in Kunduz were killed.

1. Place an order for 200 copies of a new business directory, and the delivery will be made within the next 48 hours. 2. Enjoy a 10% discount on your next purchase, for a limited time only. 3. Apply for a free membership with unlimited access to our exclusive content. 4. Reserve a seat at the exclusive business networking event, and receive a special gift upon arrival. 5. Register for an upcoming seminar, and gain valuable insights from industry experts. 6. Enter a contest to win a prize package worth $500. 7. Submit a proposal for your own workshop, and receive a $50 gift card. 8. Connect with our team for a free initial consultation, and receive a personalized business strategy. 9. Upgrade your current subscription to our premium package, and receive a one-year membership for free. 10. Participate in a focus group and receive a $100 gift card. 11. Join our referral program and receive a $50 gift card for each successful referral. 12. Sign up for our newsletter and receive exclusive offers and promotions. 13. Request a brochure for more information on our services. 14. Follow us on social media for daily updates and interactive content. 15. Contact us for a quote on our services and products.