The tranquility in major provinces of Afghanistan is once again waning as the security in various parts of the country is really a serious problem and must be dealt as a top priority matter. Some of the current events in the country clearly exposed that the life of the civilians are at risk and the Taliban are chiefly responsible for it. The in forces are in the position to answer them properly if they intend to adopt any something more than mere condemnation. It has to understand the fact that the Though these condemnations are necessary, Afghan government needs to do

These attacks also demonstrate extreme level of atrocity by terrorist against the innocents. Taliban, on various occasions, have claimed that they would not target the civilians directly but the reality is totally against what is claimed by them. Recent UN report has also revealed that most of the civilian killings are because of Taliban insurgents. Civilian killings, therefore, clearly depict that Taliban do care much about the civilians because they mostly care about their threat and dominance over the security arrangements. Regrettably, they chose to trigger their anger against the innocent civilians. Different attacks, bombings, shootings, suicide bombings and the vicious actions of the so-called holy war have really only been able to target the children, women and non-military figures. With the presence of such facts, it is worthy to find Taliban calling themselves friendly to Afghan people. They have been trying to develop an image of civilized and acceptable body that is trying to free the country and save the people by adopting a positive approach and

The scenario is really a serious problem and must be dealt as a top priority matter. The increase of contacts between the two countries, US sanctions may be lifted from Cuba and both the nations may be able to open their embassies in both the capitals and perhaps open a number of opportunities of trade and commerce for both the countries. It simply means that US has realized that its policy of alienation, differences and enmity has not worked and better and more logical strategy is needed to be adopted to open a number of opportunities of trade and commerce for both the countries. It is also sad that, even though having a number of wise and intel leaders as well as the introduced nominees all made efforts to convince the MPs. Some have doubts that there may have been trading and secret negotiations, however, the Senate of Afghanistan in the previous round of voting. With the Saturday vote, government officials in the center and the provinces had no sufficient encouragement to perform efficiently.
