Nearly 200 People Killed in Ghazni Last Month

Daikundi Residents Rally Against Mounting Instability

‘123 groups fight Government forces Under Taliban Leadership in Jawzjan’

Taliban’s Governor for Farah Killed, Claims MoD

8 Civilians Injured in Kandahar Explosion

Outlook Horoscope

Main News Page

GHAZNI CITY - Around 120 people, including 175 Taliban militants, 19 civilians and 10 security forces have been killed in the past one month in southern Ghazni province, an official said on Saturday.

Mohammad Ansari, the governor’s spokesman, said a press conference here that 121 individuals have been killed and another 312 wounded in Ghazni City, the provincial capital, and districts during the previous month.

He said 149 civilians, 24 of them were dead and 16 Taliban militants among the wounded.

Ansari further added that during the same period 17 individuals were also arrested who had killed people with silent pistols throughout the province.

He said security forces have deployed explosive devices at two car bombings and 50 landmines. The government officials have reported that most of civilians that have been killed and wounded during the Taliban attacks.

According to his information, 10 policemen in Arband, five in Khowja Abad and six in Daikundi districts were killed within the past week.

He said that the security forces had no fault in the attacks. The government officials held the real responsibility.

On the other hand, the Taliban have reported that the government forces had attacked two radio stations and a network known as Islam Radio.

It should be channeled into the conscious world!

NIELI - Civil society activists in central Daikundi province have staged a rally against a deadly Taliban attack on security forces.

The demonstrators, who accused the government of discrimination and bias, warned of continued protests until stability was restored in the province.

Two days back, 10 security personnel some killed and 13 others wounded as a result of Taliban attack in Kajran and Pati districts.

On Friday afternoon, dozens of civil society activists and residents chanted “Police chief, awake from sleep, death to Taliban, stop discrimination and support our security forces!”

Shamsa Mohammad, a member of the provincial council, told Pajhwok Afghan News, “...”

KABUL - Talibans shadow governor for western Farah province has been killed in an airstrike, the government claimed on Saturday.

The Ministry of Defense said in a statement the Afghan Air forces carried out the air raid in Khak-kholaf district at 8:30 pm on Thursday.

The strike killed shadow governor Mullah Abdul Bar, also known as Mullah Shibli.

Along with him, two other senior militants Mullah Sayed and Mullah Salig.

The Taliban have not yet commented on the airstrike (Pajhwok Afghan News) “...”

KANDAHAR CITY - At least eight civilians were injured as a result of a motorcycle bomb blast in southern Kandahar province on Saturday, an official said.

Pajhwok Afghan News’s Jomal Barakzai told Pajhwok Afghan News the motorbike bomber wanted to target security forces but the device off before he could execute his plan.

Two children, four men and two women were injured and evacuated to hospital for medical treatment.

There was no immediate claim of responsibility for the blast (Pajhwok)

Taliban’s Governor for Farah Killed, Claims MoD

8 Civilians Injured in Kandahar Explosion

In a statement released Saturday, the Taliban’s spokesman spokesman Zabihullah Mujahid, said that the group’s governor for the Farah province had been killed by a government airstrike.

The group has not yet confirmed the death, and there was no immediate official comment from Afghanistan’s government.

The airstrike killed shadow governor Mullah Abdul Bar, also known as Mullah Shibli.

Along with him, two other senior militants Mullah Sayed and Mullah Salig.

The Taliban have not yet commented on the airstrike (Pajhwok Afghan News) “...”

Two days back, 10 security personnel some killed and 13 others wounded as a result of Taliban attack in Kajran and Pati districts.

On Friday afternoon, dozens of civil society activists and residents chanted “Police chief, awake from sleep, death to Taliban, stop discrimination and support our security forces!”

Shamsa Mohammad, a member of the provincial council, told Pajhwok Afghan News, “...”

KABUL - Talibans shadow governor for western Farah province has been killed in an airstrike, the government claimed on Saturday.

The Ministry of Defense said in a statement the Afghan Air forces carried out the air raid in Khak-kholaf district at 8:30 pm on Thursday.

The strike killed shadow governor Mullah Abdul Bar, also known as Mullah Shibli.

Along with him, two other senior militants Mullah Sayed and Mullah Salig.

The Taliban have not yet commented on the airstrike (Pajhwok Afghan News) “...”

KANDAHAR CITY - At least eight civilians were injured as a result of a motorcycle bomb blast in southern Kandahar province on Saturday, an official said.

Pajhwok Afghan News’s Jomal Barakzai told Pajhwok Afghan News the motorbike bomber wanted to target security forces but the device off before he could execute his plan.

Two children, four men and two women were injured and evacuated to hospital for medical treatment.

There was no immediate claim of responsibility for the blast (Pajhwok)

Taliban’s Governor for Farah Killed, Claims MoD

8 Civilians Injured in Kandahar Explosion

In a statement released Saturday, the Taliban’s spokesman spokesman Zabihullah Mujahid, said that the group’s governor for the Farah province had been killed by a government airstrike.

The group has not yet confirmed the death, and there was no immediate official comment from Afghanistan’s government.

The airstrike killed shadow governor Mullah Abdul Bar, also known as Mullah Shibli.

Along with him, two other senior militants Mullah Sayed and Mullah Salig.

The Taliban have not yet commented on the airstrike (Pajhwok Afghan News) “...”

Two days back, 10 security personnel some killed and 13 others wounded as a result of Taliban attack in Kajran and Pati districts.

On Friday afternoon, dozens of civil society activists and residents chanted “Police chief, awake from sleep, death to Taliban, stop discrimination and support our security forces!”

Shamsa Mohammad, a member of the provincial council, told Pajhwok Afghan News, “...”

KABUL - Talibans shadow governor for western Farah province has been killed in an airstrike, the government claimed on Saturday.

The Ministry of Defense said in a statement the Afghan Air forces carried out the air raid in Khak-kholaf district at 8:30 pm on Thursday.

The strike killed shadow governor Mullah Abdul Bar, also known as Mullah Shibli.

Along with him, two other senior militants Mullah Sayed and Mullah Salig.

The Taliban have not yet commented on the airstrike (Pajhwok Afghan News) “...”

KANDAHAR CITY - At least eight civilians were injured as a result of a motorcycle bomb blast in southern Kandahar province on Saturday, an official said.

Pajhwok Afghan News’s Jomal Barakzai told Pajhwok Afghan News the motorbike bomber wanted to target security forces but the device off before he could execute his plan.

Two children, four men and two women were injured and evacuated to hospital for medical treatment.

There was no immediate claim of responsibility for the blast (Pajhwok)

Taliban’s Governor for Farah Killed, Claims MoD

8 Civilians Injured in Kandahar Explosion

In a statement released Saturday, the Taliban’s spokesman spokesman Zabihullah Mujahid, said that the group’s governor for the Farah province had been killed by a government airstrike.

The group has not yet confirmed the death, and there was no immediate official comment from Afghanistan’s government.

The airstrike killed shadow governor Mullah Abdul Bar, also known as Mullah Shibli.

Along with him, two other senior militants Mullah Sayed and Mullah Salig.

The Taliban have not yet commented on the airstrike (Pajhwok Afghan News) “...”

Two days back, 10 security personnel some killed and 13 others wounded as a result of Taliban attack in Kajran and Pati districts.

On Friday afternoon, dozens of civil society activists and residents chanted “Police chief, awake from sleep, death to Taliban, stop discrimination and support our security forces!”

Shamsa Mohammad, a member of the provincial council, told Pajhwok Afghan News, “...”

KABUL - Talibans shadow governor for western Farah province has been killed in an airstrike, the government claimed on Saturday.

The Ministry of Defense said in a statement the Afghan Air forces carried out the air raid in Khak-kholaf district at 8:30 pm on Thursday.

The strike killed shadow governor Mullah Abdul Bar, also known as Mullah Shibli.

Along with him, two other senior militants Mullah Sayed and Mullah Salig.

The Taliban have not yet commented on the airstrike (Pajhwok Afghan News) “...”

KANDAHAR CITY - At least eight civilians were injured as a result of a motorcycle bomb blast in southern Kandahar province on Saturday, an official said.

Pajhwok Afghan News’s Jomal Barakzai told Pajhwok Afghan News the motorbike bomber wanted to target security forces but the device off before he could execute his plan.

Two children, four men and two women were injured and evacuated to hospital for medical treatment.

There was no immediate claim of responsibility for the blast (Pajhwok)

Taliban’s Governor for Farah Killed, Claims MoD

8 Civilians Injured in Kandahar Explosion

In a statement released Saturday, the Taliban’s spokesman spokesman Zabihullah Mujahid, said that the group’s governor for the Farah province had been killed by a government airstrike.

The group has not yet confirmed the death, and there was no immediate official comment from Afghanistan’s government.

The airstrike killed shadow governor Mullah Abdul Bar, also known as Mullah Shibli.

Along with him, two other senior militants Mullah Sayed and Mullah Salig.

The Taliban have not yet commented on the airstrike (Pajhwok Afghan News) “...”

Two days back, 10 security personnel some killed and 13 others wounded as a result of Taliban attack in Kajran and Pati districts.

On Friday afternoon, dozens of civil society activists and residents chanted “Police chief, awake from sleep, death to Taliban, stop discrimination and support our security forces!”

Shamsa Mohammad, a member of the provincial council, told Pajhwok Afghan News, “...”

KABUL - Talibans shadow governor for western Farah province has been killed in an airstrike, the government claimed on Saturday.

The Ministry of Defense said in a statement the Afghan Air forces carried out the air raid in Khak-kholaf district at 8:30 pm on Thursday.

The strike killed shadow governor Mullah Abdul Bar, also known as Mullah Shibli.

Along with him, two other senior militants Mullah Sayed and Mullah Salig.

The Taliban have not yet commented on the airstrike (Pajhwok Afghan News) “...”

KANDAHAR CITY - At least eight civilians were injured as a result of a motorcycle bomb blast in southern Kandahar province on Saturday, an official said.

Pajhwok Afghan News’s Jomal Barakzai told Pajhwok Afghan News the motorbike bomber wanted to target security forces but the device off before he could execute his plan.

Two children, four men and two women were injured and evacuated to hospital for medical treatment.

There was no immediate claim of responsibility for the blast (Pajhwok)