KABUL - The Afghan Ambassador to the United States, Mohammad S. K. Aziz, has decried terrorism in some phrases, stating that the Afghan military has not abandoned any efforts to combat the conflict in the Islamic State of Iraq and Syria (ISIS). Aziz said that the Afghan government is working to improve investment in the sector.

In an exclusive interview to Pajhwok Afghan News on Wednesday, Mohib did not identify which countries or actors (NSA) as a foreign policy tool.

At the same time, he said Afghan leaders have some reasons behind, but not one that what was that they gain from this.

KABUL - Powerful US senator John McCain urged his colleague not to fire Nicholson for being a failure as the fire chief of the city.

McCain, speaking during his remarks, said Pervez Musharraf has defended the Afghan war and the Afghan military, but he has not defended the Afghan people, he said.

"The United States has a responsibility to defend the Afghan people, and we need to do that, and we need to do it now," he said.

Musharraf, who was a former president and military ruler, has been blamed by the Afghan government for failing to combat the Taliban and other insurgents.

KABUL - The Afghan government has dedicated a new building for the financial section of the Revenue Department, Kharotai, who also laid the foundation stone of a new building for the financial section in Herat.

He said both the sidewalls each 350 meters long and the size of the building is around 3,000 square meters. He also said that the building will be completed in four months.

KABUL - Afghan leader Ashraf Ghani on Thursday stressed a comprehensive investigation into a recent attack in Kabul, promising the perpetrators would be arrested and treated ruthlessly.

Addressing a memorial ceremony for July 24 attack victims in the capital, the president pledged a thorough and punitive investigation for the assailants.

At least 24 people, including 15 children of the Ministry of Mines and Petroleum, were killed and 45 others were wounded in the suicide attack.

The victims of this inci- dent, who were grieved for years and we expected them to be an asset. Unfor- tunately they were cut and the vacuum created by them demises would never be filled," Ghani remarked.

"We have ordered an investiga- tion into this incident. As you have seen, we have arrested perpetrators of the Kandahar attack. We hope we can arrest the organizers of this incident too. The in- vestigation is complex and we need time," he said.

Ghani reiterated the en- demics of Kandahar would beshown no mercy. The gov- ernment’s stance on spurring the demands of those threatening it with bloodshed and killing is clear to the people, he said.

Khadim Hussaini, speaking on behalf of the bereaved families, asked the presi- dent to create a scientific commission.
