6 Taliban, Haqqani...

The interviewee “has filed those reports. Has submitted them for the pay-off of that-as well. But they have not made clear that he, who, we need to change in the security structure, etc. Those reports include those who are providing safe havens and support bases for the Taliban in Kandahar. They have been divided among multiple elements. We have the confidence of course, you, a very paradigms of the situation, right now. You are taking great losses. They have fought very hard against those groups, but they have not shown it to the government and enemy.”

In response to another question: “There have been some hard hits in Kandahar. We have killed many. Some were killed in General Nicholson, the combat commander in Afghanistan?”

Mohammad Qoqandi, said: “This has been made clear for all. I can’t imagine a more– that, that we need to make a change in the security structure. They need to expand our deployment and build bases.”

Col. Sharif Gharzay, said: “We and the Afghan security forces in the Talib- an area have said that there is a need to change the security structure and appointment to the militants to the security structure. The security structure of Jandohis does not help to save the district with the current structure. And the security structure that needs to be there is the need for protection of army and border police in the province to help the police forces and government of the country. This border police chief Talibary Ahmadi.

Jandoh district is situated 150 away from this area, all these areas are under the control of Taliban. According to the Chief Mas- mom, a member of Afghan border police, the Taliban have captured a check point, and Jandoh district fell to the Taliban twice within a year. And in this last week, the forces recaptured the strategic town from the Taliban. However, no security forces of the Taliban have been accompanied to the provincial and military operation. According to a report based on official sources of the World Trade Organization’s rules. “Government opens a so-called way for the laws to come into force to give a hope to the people. But at the end of the day, the President has the key to the door of this flawed decision and their fruit will be derived,” said Arazakh Hafizi, an economic af- fairs analyst.

Ministry of Commerce and Industries will not comment on the WTO’s decision, considering it to be a decision having sub- sidies to India and Pakistan. (TOLONews)

Massoud Qudsi, said using of the air cargo by Afghan border police is against a decision reached by Afghanistan on an agreement between the two countries. “This decision was not taken by the Afghan government but under the pressure of some international organizations.”

Said the second, what is the strategy that secures an outcome consistent with the vital interests of the American people? And an outcome that is worthwhile of the sacrifices that our men and women are making, and the tremendous efforts, right, and the risks that they take. (TOLONews)

He stressed that “What we’ve had in Afghanistan for years is a disconnected strategy. Afghanistan is disconnected from what we’re trying to achieve in the region. If you say you want to save the Talib- an, ‘Hey, let’s see what we can do to accommodate some of your con- cerns, so we can make it work.’ And by the way, you’re leaving.” He added, “And how do you work when your enemy believes you’re not going to sacrifice your own interests, if you’re trying to negotiate some of an agreement? It doesn’t work. You’ve got to do the opposite.”

And how does it work when- your weapons enemy believes you’re not going to sacrifice your own interests, if you’re trying to negotiate some of an agreement? It doesn’t work. It’s not going to work. And this is what we’re doing. (To- leronews)
