Cargo Route Failure

Instead, the former Navy SEAL and bad. But continuing the same -- I over the US Embassy in six months “There’s a lot of people that say just strategy in Afghanistan. CEO Erik Prince is publicly touting a proposal to shake up the US military in Afghanistan in Iran and Pakistan. He said that within two years, all Afghan businessmen have suffered millions of Afs losses due to the ineffectiveness of the air cargo route with India.

“We are paying serious attention to preventing the insecurity, Mohammad Masoom Stanekzai said efforts are under-taking the fills to 600 calories – higher than that of American soldiers, agencies.

At the conference security agencies signed an agreement with the Attorney General’s Office to fight corruption in security agencies. Ghani said that no one, including him, will interfere in ap-pointments within security organizations. "I want to reduce my authority in appointments day-by-day," he said.

At the conference security agencies signed an agreement with the Afghan security forces in their fight against insurgents, says President Ashraf Ghani.

"A number of people are living under the open sky in this hot weather and some are living in mosques. They have nothing," he said.

"We came here after leaving everything at home and now we don’t know what to do and what to eat or drink," said Zahra, head of a displaced families have been displaced from Mirza Olang village after attack by militants.

"We are paying serious attention to preventing the infiltration of..." (Momen on P4)."

President Ashraf Ghani

Corruption Imposes Afghan Forces’ Successes

President Ashraf Ghani said at a conference that he will reduce his role in appointments within security agencies.

"I want to reduce my authority in appointments day-by-day," he said.

At the conference security agencies signed an agreement with the Attorney General’s Office to fight corruption in security agencies. Ghani said that no one, including him, will interfere in appointments within security organizations. "I want to reduce my authority in appointments day-by-day," he said.

At the conference security agencies signed an agreement with the Afghan security forces in their fight against insurgents, says President Ashraf Ghani.

"A number of people are living under the open sky in this hot weather and some are living in mosques. They have nothing," he said.

"We came here after leaving everything at home and now we don’t know what to do and what to eat or drink," said Zahra, head of a displaced families have been displaced from Mirza Olang village after attack by militants.

"We are paying serious attention to preventing the infiltration of..." (Momen on P4).

KABUL - Reports indicate that the U.S. military has lost its control over the White House. The administration had further complicated its plan. "We’ve had now three sessions within the National Security Council exploring all range of options. And when I say a full range of options, I mean the entire landscape," Tillerson said. A transcript released in Washington by his office, also quoted Tillerson as telling journalists in Manila that he will precede sessions that nobody else had done in the past.

"The president is asking... some very, very pointed ques-tions, and they are good questions. They were the right questions that he should be asking, and perhaps those are questions that no one’s been willing to raise in the past," he said. (Momen on P4)."

President Ashraf Ghani

Corruption Imposes Afghan Forces’ Successes

President Ashraf Ghani said at a conference that he will reduce his role in appointments within security agencies.

"I want to reduce my authority in appointments day-by-day," he said.

At the conference security agencies signed an agreement with the Attorney General’s Office to fight corruption in security agencies. Ghani said that no one, including him, will interfere in appointments within security organizations. "I want to reduce my authority in appointments day-by-day," he said.

At the conference security agencies signed an agreement with the Afghan security forces in their fight against insurgents, says President Ashraf Ghani.

"A number of people are living under the open sky in this hot weather and some are living in mosques. They have nothing," he said.

"We came here after leaving everything at home and now we don’t know what to do and what to eat or drink," said Zahra, head of a displaced families have been displaced from Mirza Olang village after attack by militants.

"We are paying serious attention to preventing the infiltration of..." (Momen on P4)."

President Ashraf Ghani

Corruption Imposes Afghan Forces’ Successes

President Ashraf Ghani said at a conference that he will reduce his role in appointments within security agencies.

"I want to reduce my authority in appointments day-by-day," he said.

At the conference security agencies signed an agreement with the Attorney General’s Office to fight corruption in security agencies. Ghani said that no one, including him, will interfere in appointments within security organizations. "I want to reduce my authority in appointments day-by-day," he said.

At the conference security agencies signed an agreement with the Afghan security forces in their fight against insurgents, says President Ashraf Ghani.

"A number of people are living under the open sky in this hot weather and some are living in mosques. They have nothing," he said.

"We came here after leaving everything at home and now we don’t know what to do and what to eat or drink," said Zahra, head of a displaced families have been displaced from Mirza Olang village after attack by militants.

"We are paying serious attention to preventing the infiltration of..." (Momen on P4)."

President Ashraf Ghani

Corruption Imposes Afghan Forces’ Successes

President Ashraf Ghani said at a conference that he will reduce his role in appointments within security agencies.

"I want to reduce my authority in appointments day-by-day," he said.

At the conference security agencies signed an agreement with the Attorney General’s Office to fight corruption in security agencies. Ghani said that no one, including him, will interfere in appointments within security organizations. "I want to reduce my authority in appointments day-by-day," he said.

At the conference security agencies signed an agreement with the Afghan security forces in their fight against insurgents, says President Ashraf Ghani.

"A number of people are living under the open sky in this hot weather and some are living in mosques. They have nothing," he said.

"We came here after leaving everything at home and now we don’t know what to do and what to eat or drink," said Zahra, head of a displaced families have been displaced from Mirza Olang village after attack by militants.

"We are paying serious attention to preventing the infiltration of..." (Momen on P4)."