Berliner - German Chancellor Angela Merkel on Wednesday believed the launch of a “project that is aimed at something useful” in the European Union and after later fighting for support in Brussels that would be in the best interest of Europe and Germany after later defending it in Brussels.

Kiev - The Ukrainian government on Wednesday said it would not be able to continue negotiations with Russia on the annexation of the Crimean peninsula, which Russia has occupied since 2014.

Rome - Italian Prime Minister Giuseppe Conte said on Wednesday that the new brigades for the Italian port of Genoa would be ready by April, replacing an Italian naval unit that collapsed one year ago, killing 43 people.

Santo Domingo - The government of the Dominican Republic on Wednesday said it would not be able to continue negotiations with the United States on the new brigades for the Italian port of Genoa.

Tokyo - The Japanese government on Wednesday said it would not be able to continue negotiations with the United States on the new brigades for the Italian port of Genoa.

Washington, D.C. - The Trump administration on Wednesday said it would not be able to continue negotiations with the United States on the new brigades for the Italian port of Genoa.

Beijing - Officials at the Chinese Foreign Ministry on Wednesday said it would not be able to continue negotiations with the United States on the new brigades for the Italian port of Genoa.

Moscow - Russian President Vladimir Putin on Wednesday issued a statement following the Calls for freer Russian-Sino trade relations, which were organized by the European Union and the Chinese government. Putin said the Russian-U.S. economic relationship is the key for the future of Russian-U.S. economic relations.

Tokyo - The Japanese government on Wednesday said it would not be able to continue negotiations with the United States on the new brigades for the Italian port of Genoa.

Rome - Italian Prime Minister Giuseppe Conte said on Wednesday that the new brigades for the Italian port of Genoa would be ready by April, replacing an Italian naval unit that collapsed one year ago, killing 43 people.

Santo Domingo - The government of the Dominican Republic on Wednesday said it would not be able to continue negotiations with the United States on the new brigades for the Italian port of Genoa.

Tokyo - The Japanese government on Wednesday said it would not be able to continue negotiations with the United States on the new brigades for the Italian port of Genoa.

Washington, D.C. - The Trump administration on Wednesday said it would not be able to continue negotiations with the United States on the new brigades for the Italian port of Genoa.

Beijing - Officials at the Chinese Foreign Ministry on Wednesday said it would not be able to continue negotiations with the United States on the new brigades for the Italian port of Genoa.

Moscow - Russian President Vladimir Putin on Wednesday issued a statement following the Calls for freer Russian-Sino trade relations, which were organized by the European Union and the Chinese government. Putin said the Russian-U.S. economic relationship is the key for the future of Russian-U.S. economic relations.

Tokyo - The Japanese government on Wednesday said it would not be able to continue negotiations with the United States on the new brigades for the Italian port of Genoa.

Rome - Italian Prime Minister Giuseppe Conte said on Wednesday that the new brigades for the Italian port of Genoa would be ready by April, replacing an Italian naval unit that collapsed one year ago, killing 43 people.

Santo Domingo - The government of the Dominican Republic on Wednesday said it would not be able to continue negotiations with the United States on the new brigades for the Italian port of Genoa.

Tokyo - The Japanese government on Wednesday said it would not be able to continue negotiations with the United States on the new brigades for the Italian port of Genoa.

Washington, D.C. - The Trump administration on Wednesday said it would not be able to continue negotiations with the United States on the new brigades for the Italian port of Genoa.

Beijing - Officials at the Chinese Foreign Ministry on Wednesday said it would not be able to continue negotiations with the United States on the new brigades for the Italian port of Genoa.