Ghani Stresses Importance of Joining Iran’s Railway Network

TEHRAN – President Mohammad Ashraf Ghani has underlined that his country’s Herat province can become a hub for regional transit via Khal-Herat and China-Haritan railways. “One million tons of cement will be imported to Afghanistan from Iran via Khal-Herat railway at the first stage,” the Afghan president said while visiting Herat province recently.

He said most of the roads in Iran remained impassable because funds allocated to such projects weren’t used efficiently.

Kabul - Afghanistan’s ambassador to Kuwait says the Afghan government will not allow a national terrorist to exercise any influence on the country’s sovereignty. In an exclusive interview with Al-Choora’ al-Kuwaiti, Afghanistan’s ambassador to Kuwait Ahmed al-Moheb said the Afghan government would not allow any terror group to establish a presence in the country. In the same vein, he said: “We are working to support the Afghan people in their war against terrorism.”
