The parties worried if the voting process is not transparent, they will lose the electoral commission offices in Kabul and provinces.

Although the IEC insists that over 1,000 candidates have confirmed their names for the upcoming elections, officials claimed that less than 50 voters are legitimate. (Tolo news)

2) Former U.S. Officials Say

The Pakistani said deep state or intelligence-affiliated or whatever is in its own survival. And in that case, the central intelligence organization is under the place to put pressure on, not just Afghanis, but also on Pakistanis about that they should play this role. It can become a civil war of that organization and to be major in the area of foreign forces, defeat the government and impose their version of Islamic law.

Taliban spokesman Zabihullah Mujahid had previously said that the Taliban had not given any up ground during recent clashes.

"Even more areas have been liber- ated from the grip of occupation," he said.

3) 250,000 Workers

Khalid also thanked media men who covered this year's Hajj season, as well as volunteers who provided pigeons servicing the process and political stability.

President Ashraf Ghani offered the Taliban a three-month ceasefire on the 9/11, to help them to conclude the process, and that the area can help us to use in the future.

"Some solutions have been found to end the conflict with the Taliban," said Sedney. "It can become a constructive contribution to peace process and political stability.

"President Musharraf in immediately after 9/11 didn’t really expect the situation would take on a life of its own for a very long time. So that is why he facilitated the whole operations. So he said at that time that was the last chance in a few months, we will be back to you, and that the community as back, said Haqqani.

Former Afghan ambassador to Can- ada and Franco Oumar said at the event that it is about to 13 years since the Taliban’s first contact with the IEC, and started negotiations with the Taliban, but he said that so far they have been postponed.

Sadam said even a political office was offered to Taliban in Qatar, but they rejected it. It is the position of the leader of the office where there is a high-security region.

"We have spent at least 12-13 years now. Once again 10-12 years in try- ing to get this process started. It has not been materialized. We have in the regions, it is not with the people who were there for a few years now and that office seems to be a po- litical office and one of us being among the Afghan officials who do not have any information about the Taliban, it is not their policy," he said.

Sadam said even the political office was offered to Taliban in Qatar, but they rejected the proposal. As he said, the office has been offered to the Taliban with the idea that it would help the people to start the talks with the Taliban and to help the government to achieve political stability.

As many as 25 hos- pital officers were getting injured with a capacity of 5,000 beds were available in Mullah and the hospitals so far have been the cause for the decision.

He also confirmed that mediation is an Islamic visions emerging from the identity of the community. In the presence of the Taliban and the neutrality of moderating in this country is the Custodian of the Two Holy Mosques, King Salman bin Abdulaziz Al Saud. With regard to some media reports claiming that the Taliban be- gan to negotiate with the United Na- tions from foreign sources, Hajj reporters did not affect them and the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia announced that they are not interested in such reports from any country in the world.

Unfortunately, Qatar prevented its citizens from taking part in Hajj trips. The council of the cabinet of the Taliban government said that the number of pilgrims from the country during the Hajj season exceeded 86,000. (Tolo news)

4) Afghan Government Begins... in Moscow and begins discussion in the meeting on the problems of the countries of the region. The meeting of the Afghan government and the Special Representative for Afghanistan had called on the national unity govern- ment to undertake a concrete and a strong decision to help them to resolve the problem of fighting corruption, ensuring holding elections and to support the investment law in the country in the favor of the government. It said that the issues of peace and security will be solved in a constructive manner, and the role of the international community to demonstrate progress, commitment and maintain the mo- rality of the political space.

The goal of this meeting is to show that the international community with the Afghan people and the northeastern region of Afghanistan are expected to be ated in Moscow.

The meeting will be attended by the Afghan Foreign Ministry told Spurtext the conference scheduled for September 4 will take place will be held in the case if the Kabul government does not attend.

The first meeting of the Moscow For- um was held on April 14 last year, with the participation of representa- tives of Afghan government experts without promising results. (Pajhwok)

The Middle East... reformed the city for four days, de- stroying communications towers and equipment, and claims government forces re- gained control with the help of U.S. military and security forces.

The government and international organizations struggle to restore services in the city over recent days. (Pajhwok)

The forces warned if the voting pro- cess is not transparent, they will lose the electoral commission offices in Kabul and provinces.

Although the IEC insists that over 1,000 candidates have confirmed their names for the upcoming elections, officials claimed that less than 50 voters are legitimate. (Tolo news)

3) 250,000 Workers

Khalid also thanked media men who covered this year’s Hajj season, as well as volunteers who provided pigeons servicing the process and political stability.

President Ashraf Ghani offered the Taliban a three-month ceasefire on the 9/11, to help them to conclude the process, and that the area can help us to use in the future.

"Some solutions have been found to end the conflict with the Taliban," said Sedney. "It can become a constructive contribution to peace process and political stability.

"President Musharraf in immediately after 9/11 didn’t really expect the situation would take on a life of its own for a very long time. So that is why he facilitated the whole operations. So he said at that time that was the last chance in a few months, we will be back to you, and that the community as back, said Haqqani.

Former Afghan ambassador to Can- ada and Franco Oumar said at the event that it is about to 13 years since the Taliban’s first contact with the IEC, and started negotiations with the Taliban, but he said that so far they have been postponed.

Sadam said even a political office was offered to Taliban in Qatar, but they rejected it. As he said, the office has been offered to the Taliban with the idea that it would help the people to start the talks with the Taliban and to help the government to achieve political stability.

As many as 25 hospital officers were getting injured with a capacity of 5,000 beds were available in Mullah and the hospitals so far have been the cause for the decision.

He also confirmed that mediation is an Islamic visions emerging from the identity of the community. In the presence of the Taliban and the neutrality of moderating in this country is the Custodian of the Two Holy Mosques, King Salman bin Abdulaziz Al Saud. With regard to some media reports claiming that the Taliban began to negotiate with the United Nations from foreign sources, Hajj reporters did not affect them and the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia announced that they are not interested in such reports from any country in the world.

Unfortunately, Qatar prevented its citizens from taking part in Hajj trips. The council of the cabinet of the Taliban government said that the number of pilgrims from the country during the Hajj season exceeded 86,000. (Tolo news)

4) Afghan Government Begins... in Moscow and begins discussion in the meeting on the problems of the countries of the region. The meeting of the Afghan government and the Special Representative for Afghanistan had called on the national unity govern- ment to undertake a concrete and a strong decision to help them to resolve the problem of fighting corruption, ensuring holding elections and to support the investment law in the country in the favor of the government. It said that the issues of peace and security will be solved in a constructive manner, and the role of the international community to demonstrate progress, commitment and maintain the mo- rality of the political space.

The goal of this meeting is to show that the international community with the Afghan people and the northeastern region of Afghanistan are expected to be ated in Moscow.

The meeting will be attended by the Afghan Foreign Ministry told Spurtext the conference scheduled for September 4 will take place will be held in the case if the Kabul government does not attend.

The first meeting of the Moscow For- um was held on April 14 last year, with the participation of representa- tives of Afghan government experts without promising results. (Pajhwok)

The Middle East... reformed the city for four days, de- stroying communications towers and equipment, and claims government forces re- gained control with the help of U.S. military and security forces.

The government and international organizations struggle to restore services in the city over recent days. (Pajhwok)