The paper ID cards verification became mandatory in 2015 after an Iranian forged an Afghan citizenship ID card to show himself as an Afghan but was exposed later. However, CSO says that the problem has been solved with the digitisation of the archive and then it would verify services in this area to people, he said.

The capacity of the factory will increase in the future," said Mohammad Haidar, an investor. "The factory has the capacity to package its product as well," said Mohammad Lutfi, an industry expert.

A well-placed source in Doha told Pajhwok Afghan News the talks would last another three days before a deal was announced. Wishing anonymity, the source claimed there had been headway over the two days on technical points. He hoped all points would be finalised in the ongoing round. "...More on P4..."

Aloe Vera Processing Plant Inaugurated in Herat

KABUL - A factory of aloe vera processing was inaugurated in Herat on Friday which can process at least 10 tons of the plant on a daily basis.

At least $2 million has been invested in the plant which is located in the industrial park in the city of Herat, owner of the company said.

Employees of the factory said the product of the factory will be used in energy drinks.

"The plant has been newly introduced in the province and according to officials, it can be creating a good business similar to saffron. The capacity of the factory will increase in the future," said Mohammad Haidar, an investor. "The factory has the capacity to package its product as well," said Mohammad Lutfi, an industry expert.

PRD Archive Digitalised to Accelerate ID Cards Verification Process

The paper ID cards verification became mandatory in 2015 after an Iranian forged an Afghan citizenship ID card to show himself as an Afghan but was exposed later. However, CSO says that the problem has been solved with the digitisation of the archive and then it would verify services in this area to people, he said.

The capacity of the factory will increase in the future," said Mohammad Haidar, an investor. "The factory has the capacity to package its product as well," said Mohammad Lutfi, an industry expert.

A well-placed source in Doha told Pajhwok Afghan News the talks would last another three days before a deal was announced. Wishing anonymity, the source claimed there had been headway over the two days on technical points. He hoped all points would be finalised in the ongoing round. "...More on P4..."