Political Stability in Afghanistan Remains
A Prerequisite for Progress: Mogherini

KABUL - High Representative of the European Union for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy and Vice-President of the European Commission, on Wednesday spoke with CEO Abdullah Abdullah, and on Thursday with the President, Ashraf Ghani. Mogherini expressed to President Ghani her sincere condolences to the families and friends of the victims of Wednesday's attack on the American University in Kabul, reiterating the European Union's solidarity with the Afghan authorities in the fight against terrorism. Mogherini spoke to both the Chief Executive and the President about the urgent need to find a swift, stable and durable solution to current challenges. Political stability remains a prerequisite for progress – for the sake of the country and the Afghan people.

University Attack Managed from Across Durand Line: NSC

KABUL - The National Security Council (NSC) on Thursday said Wednesday’s attack on the American University of Afghanistan in Kabul was managed from the other side of the Durand Line. The Taliban-style attack involving three suicide bombers began at 7pm when one of the three exploded an explosives-laden car against the university wall, allowing the two others to enter the campus, with the siege lasting 10 hours. According to a statement from the Presidential Palace, one teacher, seven students, two university security guards and three Afghan security personnel had been killed and 53 students and university workers and nine security personnel injured in the attack. The NSC held an extraordinary meeting at the Presidential Palace and reviewed details of the attack, the statement said. The statement said evidence and findings of the spy service showed the attack was managed and orchestrated from the other side of the Durand Line, and the President Ashraf Ghani, in a phone call, stressed the need to find a swift, stable and durable solution to current challenges. Political stability remains a prerequisite for progress – for the sake of the country and the Afghan people.

Hunt on for Attack Facilitators, Gen. Raheel Informns Ghani

PESHAWAR - The Pakistan army chief has assured President Ashraf Ghani of all possible cooperation in bringing the American University of Afghanistan attackers to justice, the military said. In a telephone conversation with Ghani late on Thursday, Chief of Army Staff (COAS) General Raheel Sharif strongly condemned the terrorist attack on the elite university in Kabul, and the Inter-Services Public Relations (ISPR) said Pakistan's soil would never be allowed to be used for any type of terrorism in Afghanistan, the general promised, saying: “Afghan authorities have shared 3 mobile telephone numbers, allegedly used during the attack.” Based on the Afghan cell numbers provided by Kabul, the Pakistan Army carried out a combing operation in suspected area close to the border to verify the presence of miscreants there. “Our evaluation of the evidence and the outcome of [Mogherini’s] meeting will provide a timely opportunity for the international community to identify the perpetrators of the attack,” the military said. They called on the Afghan authorities to use the entire international community to identify the perpetrators of the attack.

AUAF Students Committed to Learning Despite Campus Tragedy

KABUL - As Afghanistan mourns the death of victims of Wednesday’s terrorist attack on the American University of Afghanistan, a number of students injured in the attack have said that the attack will not deter them from furthering their education. They called on the Afghan government and international community to identify the perpetrators of the attack. Students also called on the international community to increase pressure on Pakistan to fight terrorist organizations based in their country that continue to wage war in Afghanistan. Meanwhile, an Afghan soldier who was wounded in the attack has revealed that “the attack itself was a failure.”

Now with Afghan Telecom IMS system [video call], reduce the distance

Many Taliban Eliminated in Nad Ali Airstrikes: ANA

LASHKARGAH - A large number of Taliban fighters have been killed in two airstrikes by NATO-led troops in southern Helmand province, officials said on Friday. The insurgent movement, however, claimed the Resultante Support mission’s aircraft struck a detention facility in Nad Ali district, killing 22 security personnel. Mohammad Ehsan Zaman, spokesman for the 215th Mainstream Military Corps, told Pajhwok, “Attacks have been made on Durand Line, the other side of the Durand.”

Kabul University Attack Widely Condemned

KABUL - US, UNAMA, Pakistan, India and others strongly condemned attack on American University that killed and wounded dozens of people. Sixteen people were killed and another 39, were wounded in Wednesday explosion attack in PD7 Kabul city, officials said. UNAMA condemns attack in Kabul, the Inter-Services Public Relations (ISPR) said.

Editor's Pick

1. Taliban fighters have been killed in two airstrikes by NATO-led troops in southern Helmand province, officials said on Friday. The insurgent movement, however, claimed the Resultante Support mission’s aircraft struck a detention facility in Nad Ali district, killing 22 security personnel. Mohammad Ehsan Zaman, spokesman for the 215th Mainstream Military Corps, told Pajhwok, “Attacks have been made on Durand Line, the other side of the Durand.”

2. Afghan security forces have been killed and 36 students and university workers and nine security personnel injured in the attack. According to a statement from the Presidential Palace, one teacher, seven students, two university security guards and three Afghan security personnel had been killed and 53 students and university workers and nine security personnel injured in the attack. The NSC held an extraordinary meeting at the Presidential Palace and reviewed details of the attack, the statement said.

3. Afghanistan's Roshan Afghan Premier League (RAPL) 2016 opening ceremony in Kabul on Thursday. Afghan Star commentateurs performed this year's new theme song while team captain’s walked out on field wearing their respective flags. The opening match scheduled later Thursday will see last year’s winners De Smythekte Blues from the eastern zone face the northern Simorgh Alborz team. Last year’s final match drew a record 384 million viewers – which included 35% of all Afghans in the country and Afghans around the world. "In the past four seasons we have witnessed five [finals on P4],” said Mohammad Rasool Zazai, spokesman for the Inter-Services Public Relations (ISPR) at the Inter-Services Public Relations (ISPR) said. Pakistan's soil would never be allowed to be used for any type of terrorism in Afghanistan, the general promised, saying: "Afghan authorities have shared 3 mobile telephone numbers, allegedly used during the attack.” Based on the Afghan cell numbers provided by Kabul, the Pakistan Army carried out a combing operation in suspected area close to the border to verify the presence of miscreants there. “Our evaluation of the evidence and the outcome of [Mogherini’s] meeting will provide a timely opportunity for the international community to identify the perpetrators of the attack,” the military said. They called on the Afghan authorities to use the entire international community to identify the perpetrators of the attack. Students also called on the international community to increase pressure on Pakistan to fight terrorist organizations based in their country that continue to wage war in Afghanistan. Meanwhile, an Afghan soldier who was wounded in the attack has revealed that “the attack itself was a failure.”

4. Afghanistan has been a victim of terrorism for years, with the Taliban and other groups carrying out attacks across the country. The latest attack occurred on the American University in Kabul, with one teacher, seven students, two university security guards and three Afghan security personnel killed and 53 students and university workers and nine security personnel injured. The Taliban have been blamed for the attack, with the slain teacher and seven students and university workers and nine security personnel injured. The Taliban have been blamed for the attack, with the slain teacher and seven students and university workers and nine security personnel injured. The Taliban have been blamed for the attack, with the slain teacher and seven students and university workers and nine security personnel injured. The Taliban have been blamed for the attack, with the slain teacher and seven students and university workers and nine security personnel injured. The Taliban have been blamed for the attack, with the slain teacher and seven students and university workers and nine security personnel injured. The Taliban have been blamed for the attack, with the slain teacher and seven students and university workers and nine security personnel injured.