The envoy discussed the security of Indian nationals in Afghanistan joint security commission future meeting and implementation of agreements already made. NSC has thanked Indian envoy for his country’s support in the critical time and sincere friendship.

Pakistan’s Military Potted Ghazni Attack: Mol

KABUL - The Ministry of Interior (MoI) on Wednesday said Pakistan’s military establishment planned and established the coordinated attack on Ghazni city earlier this month.

Both dignitaries have discussed the current state of relationship and development of joint economic, security and political engagements. The Indian envoy congratulated Mohib on assuming the office of NCG and assured his country’s long-term support and cooperation.

Pakistan and Pakistan’s military were involved in the plan to attack Ghazi, Pakistan provided all sufficient aid to them and it’s very clear,” said MoI spokesman Najib Danish.

Pakistan’s military has not adapted to it, if I was given a chance, I would have grown up, but she would have extended their support to the people of Pakistan if their demands were ignored.

Poverty Drives Small IDP Children into Jawzjan Brick Kilns

SHIBERGHAN - Ten-year-old Zakia dreams to become a doctor but she is forced by poverty to make bricks with her little hands in order to support her family in northern Jawzjan province. Zakia currently lives in Khatun village of Shibergan, capital of Jawzjan. She works with her father and mother in the brick kiln. The girl, now a skilled worker, puts the clay into molds and then carries the hot brick to the kiln after passing some distance. Working with father, mother and uncle, Zakia also turns the bricks to get dried under the sun. She also collects the dried bricks and takes them to sell.

Kabul - Supporters and representatives of political parties have closed main roads in different parts of capital Kabul to press the government to accept their election-related demands. The protesters say demands should be met ahead of the October 20 elections.

Demanding change of leadership in Afghanistan, demonstrators have blocked main roads in different parts of capital Kabul to press the government to accept their election-related demands. The protesters say they would extend their protest to other parts of the capital if their demands were not met.

KABUL - This was stated during a meeting between National Security Advisor (NSA) Hamidulah Mohib and India’s envoy to Afghanistan Vinay Kumar who called on Mohib at his office.

Handfuls of supporters of political parties have blocked the roads in some areas of Kabul including Sara-e-Shahmar, Public Health Square, and Basia Clock. The protesters say they would extend their protest to other parts of the capital if their demands were not met.
