Danish Claims Officials are Breaking the Law

KABUL — Speaking before Afghan legislators at the People’s League (lower House of Parliament) on Monday, President Ashraf Ghani and his Vice-President Mohammad Sarwar Danish and government officials and ministers are breaking the law, an issue which he said undermines the implementation of the constitution and rule of law. Danish was addressing parliament on the occasion of the introduction of six candidates for positions at membership of the Independent Commission for the Implementation of the Constitution. He also asked lawmakers to approve the candidates so that the relevant commissions can start working as soon as possible.

White House Obama and Putin Discuss Syria, Ukraine

WASHINGTON, D.C. — U.S. President Barack Obama met with Russian President Vladimir Putin at the sidelines of the G20 summit in Paris on Monday, and discussed the Syrian crisis as well as the situation in Ukraine, a White House official said. Obama told Putin he believes Syrian President Bashar al-Assad must lose power as part of a political transition, the official said.

NATO Aims to Maintain About 12,000 Troops in Afghanistan

BRUSSELS — NATO is planning to keep about 12,000 troops in Afghanistan next year, NATO Secretary General Jens Stoltenberg said Monday, despite earlier plans to reduce the force. NATO had initially planned to have a smaller, similarly-sized presence in Afghanistan next year, but the situation there has since worsened, he said.

Spread of Polio to End by Mid-2016: Official

ISLAMABAD — Ministry of National Health officials confirmed Monday that the polio epidemic in Pakistan is on the decline, but warned that the threat remains and that the campaign against the disease is far from over. Pakistani authorities have been carrying out polio campaigns in an attempt to eradicate the disease, which is still considered a global health threat.
