Afgan Taliban Says IS Deputy Leader Has Joined its Ranks

KABUL - Afghan Taliban says Deputy Chief of the Movement for Islamic Emirate (MIE) Ziauddin has joined the ranks of their organization.

In a statement, the Taliban said Ziauddin had left the Islamic State of Iraq and the Levant (ISIL) and associated groups and joined the Taliban ranks.

The statement added that Ziauddin had joined the Taliban ranks in an undisclosed area.

Ziauddin was previously a member of the Islamic State of Iraq and the Levant (ISIL) and associated groups.

In recent years, ISIL has expanded its reach and influence in Afghanistan, particularly in the eastern provinces.

Ziauddin, who is known for his vocal support of ISIL, had been involved in various manhunts and operations against the Afghan government and its allies.

His defection to the Taliban is seen as a significant development in the ongoing conflict in Afghanistan.

The Taliban have been fighting for years to establish their rule in Afghanistan, with the US and other Western powers backing the government.

The Islamic State of Iraq and the Levant (ISIL) and its affiliates have been a major threat to Afghanistan and its neighboring countries.

The defection of Ziauddin is likely to have significant implications for the ongoing conflict in Afghanistan.

It is not clear yet to which group Ziauddin has joined.

Govt. Reduces Fuel Tax to Six Percent

KABUL - The Ministry of Finance has reduced the fuel tax from 12 percent to six percent in order to reduce the prices in the local market.

The statement further added that the reduction in fuel prices would also benefit the consumers and the local market.

The reduction in fuel tax is expected to have a positive impact on the economy and the local market.

The government has taken this step to reduce the prices of fuel in the local market.

The decision is aimed at reducing the burden on the local market and the consumers.

The government has also taken steps to reduce the prices of other goods and services to make life easier for the people.

KABUL - A photo exhibition addressing the challenge faced by street children in Afghanistan was held in Babur Gardens in Kabul on Thursday.

The exhibition, organized by Save the Children organization, had a message to Afghanistan government: help them have access to better life.

The photo exhibition of street children is aimed at providing awareness about the plight of children working on the streets.

After completing a short term course on photography, Maryam Attayee, a 16 year old, had a message to the exhibition: “I want to help these children.”

In our photography, we should focus on the children working on streets.
