Nabil Accuse Certain Governmental Circles of Hatching Plots to Divide People

KARUL - The former Afghan intelligence chief and head of themelon Afghan political party Rahmatullah accuses certain circles within the government of hatching plots to create division among the people.

Speaking during a gathering in Kandahar province, mainly attended by government opposition figures, Nabil said certain circles are attempting to divide the people.

Without disclosing further information regarding his claims, Nabil said the most dangerous and sensitive issue being faced by the country is the danger of division among the people based on religion, ethnicity, language, and group.

Nabil also added that the neighboring Pakistan is attempting to create problems for the country and the Afghan nation.

Today’s gathering in Kandahar has been organized amid tensions among the government and key political figures in the country.

The provincial governor of northern Balkh province and chief of staff of former defense

A_filtar Mohammad Noor was also due to take part in the gathering. However, his flight was cancelled due to certain problems on Thursday. Rahmatullah Nabil accused the government of pre-fusing his flight to Kandahar.

He also added, “It is up to the government to look into these matters and correct the existing problems.”

Kandahar Gathering Calls for ‘Serious Reforms’

KARUL - A group of politicians at a gathering in Kandahar on Saturday called on the National Unity Government to hold the upcoming elections on its scheduled time and bring serious reforms to state organizations.

Participants of the gathering, however criticized government over certain issues and claimed that the state has failed to overcome the current challenges.

Addressing the event, Anwar-ul-Haq Ahadi, Head of the New National Front of Afgha-istan, said they are upset that government prevented Balkh governor Atta Mohamdad Noor to attend the gathering.

He claimed that government does not have a proper plan for peace.

“Government, foreign forces and even the Taliban do not have any plan for peace,” Ahadi said.

He said government is not accountable to the people.

Ahadi also added that the Afghan government for not holding election.

“Government is not ready to hold elections. We must insist the ‘More on Pk. 119’

Iran, Pakistan Must Cooperate with Each other for Peace in Afghanistan: Pak Ex-Envoy

Hammad Akram- Former Pakistan’s ambassador to Afghan-i stan strongly believes that Iran and Pakistan must cooperate with each other to bring peace and stability in Afghanistan.

In an interview with a Pakistani newspaper, Akram said Iran and Pakistan share a long border with Afghanistan and can play a very crucial role for peace in Afgha-istan.

“You need to cooperate with each other as these are the two countries who are most affected by the instability in Afghanistan,” Akram added.

The diplomat went on to say that Afghanistan issue is very complicated which will take a long time to get resolved ‘but we need to continue our efforts and cooperate to find a Political solution to the Afghan problem.’

Former High Commissioner to India, expressing his views, said that the US has to adopt a realistic approach in Afghanistan; now it is time for them to do more.

He added peace in Afghanistan can only be restored if all the parties ‘join hands’.
