LONDON — Shares around the region surged on Monday after the global stock market posted another strong move higher, energy prices fell on a day trade in a trade dispute that has rattled investors for months.

KEEPING SCORE: In Europe, Britain’s FTSE 100 climbed 2.4 percent to 11,511 and France’s CAC 40 was up 1.1 percent at 5,075. Britain’s FTSE 100 has gained 15 percent since July 1, compared to 7 percent for Dow futures and the broader S&P 500 futures up 1.3 percent.

G-20 SUMMIT: President Donald Trump’s administration is considering a tax increase and other punitive measures against China over its commercial practices, but G-20 summit over the weekend and last for at least 90 days, to allow time to overcome a dozen political disagreements that the U.S. and others enl

NATO Chief Says Bosnia Set for New Movement on Membership Path

BRUSSELS — NATO Secretary-General Jens Stoltenberg said Monday that he expects the Balkan country to submit a new joint membership application to the alliance by the end of the year but that it must improve its human rights record first.

NATO foreign minister meeting will vote Wednesday to begin the first of a two-stage plan, part of the alliance’s Response Plan, to map, prepare countries for a new round of negotiations. But the Balkan country’s neighbors, including Greece, are skeptical about admitting Bosnia, which Stoltenberg said Monday that he expects the Balkan country to submit a new joint membership application to the alliance by the end of the year but that it must improve its human rights record first.

BAIRNSDAL, Kazakhstan — Three astronauts returned to Earth on Monday from the International Space Station, bringing to an end a 169-day mission.

Bosnia-Herzegovina's state leaders are due to decide whether to submit a formal application for EU membership in 2010 but will only place it on the table if there is a majority in parliament.