A couple of days earlier a couple massacred 14 people and wounded 21 others in a bank in California. The man responsible was wearing a police uniform. If the investigation reveals that he was an innocent police officer, then it would be for the police to set things right. But if it is found out that he is guilty, then the government will have to take strict measures.

The incident mentioned above clearly show how brutal such incidents can be. However, they depict the manifestation of violence of frustration and anger.

The incidents mentioned above clearly show how brutal such incidents can be. However, they depict the manifestation of violence of frustration and anger. The problems and troubles that human beings face in their social lives lead to frustration and anger. These frustrations and anger lead to such actions and should try to amend the circumstances that lead to such activities.

There may be many frightening factors in one's life but worry is a factor which is common to all. The news of withdrawal of international forces and the lack of peaceful resolution of the conflict in Afghanistan has caused many problems and difficulties. The ones who are able to escape such incidents have to bear the loss of their property and transfer it to others. However, there are possibilities that the killings allegedly carried out byFarok and Malik may have some different reasons. They have taken different places in different world with different intensities, reasons and reasons. After the mass shooting in the United States, there have been many other incidents as well around the world that have depicted the worst manifestation of violence by human beings. Such one incident happened in Norway on July 22, 2011. The incident was carried out by Anders Behring Breivik. He set off a fertilizer bomb that tore the facade of the high-rise that burned to death 96 people. It is likely that the bomber may have been influenced by psychology and history. Unfortunately, the belief that the bomber may have some different reasons. However, there are possibilities that the killings allegedly carried out byFarok and Malik may have some different reasons.

The incidents mentioned above clearly show how brutal such incidents can be. However, they depict the manifestation of violence of frustration and anger. The problems and troubles that human beings face in their social lives lead to frustration and anger. These frustrations and anger lead to such actions and should try to amend the circumstances that lead to such activities.

By Muhammad Rasool Shah

T here may be many frightening factors in one's life but worry is a factor which is common to all. The news of withdrawal of international forces and the lack of peaceful resolution of the conflict in Afghanistan has caused many problems and difficulties. The ones who are able to escape such incidents have to bear the loss of their property and transfer it to others. However, there are possibilities that the killings allegedly carried out byFarok and Malik may have some different reasons. They have taken different places in different world with different intensities, reasons and reasons. After the mass shooting in the United States, there have been many other incidents as well around the world that have depicted the worst manifestation of violence by human beings. Such one incident happened in Norway on July 22, 2011. The incident was carried out by Anders Behring Breivik. He set off a fertilizer bomb that tore the facade of the high-rise that burned to death 96 people. It is likely that the bomber may have been influenced by psychology and history. Unfortunately, the belief that the bomber may have some different reasons. However, there are possibilities that the killings allegedly carried out byFarok and Malik may have some different reasons.

The incidents mentioned above clearly show how brutal such incidents can be. However, they depict the manifestation of violence of frustration and anger. The problems and troubles that human beings face in their social lives lead to frustration and anger. These frustrations and anger lead to such actions and should try to amend the circumstances that lead to such activities.