Afghan Migrants will Return Home: Ghani

STOCKHOLM - President Mohammad Ashraf Ghani has visited Sweden and stated that these Afghan migrants who aren’t accepted by the Swedish Government will be returned home.

Swedish Prime Minister has stated that Afghan migrants especially those Afghan migrants who are underage causes serious problems for both countries, this year we have received more than 20,000 Afghan migrants came to Sweden, efforts are underway to recognize those are not permitted to live in Sweden to return to Afghanistan. We have agreed that this issue is from both.

Ghani official trip to European countries Swedish Prime Minister Stefan Löfven said, “most of the migrants who are coming to Sweden are Afghans, most of them are underage and without family which are causing serious problems for both countries this year we have received more than 20,000 Afghan migrants came to Sweden, efforts are underway to recognize those are not permitted to live in Sweden to return to Afghanistan.”

Afghan Migrants will Return Home: Ghani

KABUL - Afghan acting mayor Abdul Hahad Wahid has confirmed the wastes have piled up and 50 percent of buildings and piling wastes in the capital city of Kabul.

Kabul acting mayor Abdul Hahad Wahid stated that fifty percent of the big buildings were built by the powerful figures without the permission of Kabul municipality, he has also promised that the capital city will be cleaned out of wastes in the incoming five days.

Environment committee members and farmers have summoned the acting mayor of Kabul and head of the National Environment Protection Authority (NEPA) to answer questions over what lawmakers believe is mismanagement and weak governance by the mayor to keep the capital clean. MPs accused Kabul municipality of embezzlement and weak governance and said despite... (More on P4)...(3)

50% of Buildings Construct Illegally in Kabul: Acting Mayor

KABUL - Lower house of the parliament members had summoned the Kabul acting mayor Abdul Hahad Wahid for increasing of illegal construction of high profile buildings and piling wastes in the capital city of Kabul.

Kabul acting mayor Abdul Hahad Wahid stated that fifty percent of the big buildings were built by the powerful figures without the permission of Kabul municipality, he has also promised that the capital city will be cleaned out of wastes in the incoming five days.

Final Draft of Paris Climate Agreement Reached

PARIS - A final draft of a new global climate agreement was reached by negotiators in Paris on Saturday, ready for ministers to read and deal with sensitive political divergences next week.

The draft, now running to 21 pages, consists of 26 articles covering different issues including emissions reduction, adaptation, loss and damage, long-term finance, and a new international architecture for future climate agreements.

No Risk of NATO-Russia Conflict of Interests in Afghanistan: Envoy

Moscow - Russian permanent representative to the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO), Alexander Grushko, ruled out the possibility of collision of interests in Afghanistan.

There is no risk of conflicts between Russia and NATO over Afghanistan, Grushko said Friday. “I do not see any risk of collision between Russia and NATO in Afghanistan because Afghanistan has always been a common... (More on P4)...(1)

Shafir Holds Meeting with Top Officials over Afghan Conference

ISLAMABAD - Pakistani Prime Minister Nawaz Sharif on Saturday held a meeting with top security and intelligence officials to discuss preparations for a crucial regional conference on Afghanistan next week for which Pakistan has invited Indian External Affairs Minister Sushma Swaraj.

The "Heart of Asia" conference will be held from December 8, where representatives from Ausbeui, China, Iran, Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Russia, Saudi Arabia, Tajikistan, Turkey, Turkmenistan and the UAE are expected to attend. Pakistan has also sent an invitation to... (More on P4)...(6)

Caught Amid Garbage Crisis

KABUL - As trash continues to pile up in Kabul, MPs in the Wolesi Jirga (Lower House of Parliament) on Saturday summoned the acting mayor of Kabul and head of the National Environment Protection Authority (NEPA) to answer questions over what lawmakers believe is mismanagement and weak governance by the mayor to keep the capital clean.

MPs accused Kabul municipality of embezzlement and weak governance and said despite... (More on P4)...(1)

Quote of the Day

In order to succeed, we must first believe that we can.

Nikos Kazantzakis