IWA SURVEY

Educational, Judicial Institutions ‘Most Corrupt’

The IWA has said 1,000 face-to-face interviews were conducted with Afghan respondents in 34 provinces, while International Anti-Corruption day is marked on Sunday.

MoF Awaits Parliament’s Decision on National Budget

The Ministry of Finance calls on lawmakers to approve the budget in order to prevent problems for the next fiscal.

Trump Administration Presses for Peace Deal in Afghanistan by April, But Prospects Appear Dim

WASHINGTON - Army Gen. Mark Milley will be nominated as the next chairman of the US Joint Chiefs of Staff, President Donald Trump said on Saturday.

Milley, if confirmed by the Senate, will replace Marine Gen. Joseph Dunford whose term expires next year, according to the Voice of America, mentioned here.

“I am thankful to both of these incredible men for their service to our Country!” Trump said in a tweet. “Date of transition to be determined.”

“I am pleased to announce my nomination of four-star General Mark Milley, Chief of Staff of the United States Army, as the chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.” Trump tweeted.

A battle-hardened commander, Milley has supervised US operations in Iraq and Afghanistan. He has been chief of the army since August 2018.

A former commandant of the Marine Corps, Dunford has also led coalition troops in Afghanistan. An infantry officer, Milley received his commission from the US Military Academy at West Point. Dunford has also led coalition troops in Afghanistan.

A battle-hardened commander, Milley has supervised US operations in Iraq and Afghanistan. He has been chief of the army since August 2018.

WASHINGTON - Army Gen. Mark Milley will be nominated as the next chairman of the US Joint Chiefs of Staff, President Donald Trump said on Saturday.

Milley, if confirmed by the Senate, will replace Marine Gen. Joseph Dunford whose term expires next year, according to the Voice of America, mentioned here.

“I am thankful to both of these incredible men for their service to our Country!” Trump said in a tweet. “Date of transition to be determined.”

“I am pleased to announce my nomination of four-star General Mark Milley, Chief of Staff of the United States Army, as the chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.” Trump tweeted.

A battle-hardened commander, Milley has supervised US operations in Iraq and Afghanistan. He has been chief of the army since August 2018.

A former commandant of the Marine Corps, Dunford has also led coalition troops in Afghanistan. An infantry officer, Milley received his commission from the US Military Academy at West Point. Dunford has also led coalition troops in Afghanistan.