December 12, 2016

1) Terrorism Globally

The UN was observing Human Rights Day around the world and in Afghanistan today by highlighting achievements made since the adoption of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights in 1948. Human rights organizations say the situation in Afghanistan is the worst in the past 30 years since the end of the Taliban regime.

2) UNAMA

It was reported that the UN had completed its mission in Afghanistan, and the country was now ready to handle its own affairs. The statement was made by a high-ranking UN official, who said that the UN had done its part and was ready to leave.

3) 9/11 Anniversary

The 9/11 attacks in the United States were commemorated in Afghanistan with a solemn ceremony. The event was attended by leaders from different countries, including President Hamid Karzai.

4) Rabbani's Visit

The Afghan government has agreed to sign a peace agreement with the Taliban, ending 17 years of war. The agreement was signed in Qatar and is expected to bring peace to Afghanistan.

5) Human Rights Day

The UN Human Rights Council has declared December 10th as International Human Rights Day. This year's theme is "Stand up against gender-based violence and rape as a weapon of war and occupation." The event was marked with various activities around the world, including in Afghanistan.

6) Unrest in Herat

A deadly suicide bombing occurred in Herat, Afghanistan, killing at least 10 people and injuring dozens more. The attack was claimed by the Taliban, who have stepped up their operations in recent months.

7) Taliban Deadline

The Taliban has set a deadline for the Afghan government to sign a peace agreement, warning that they will otherwise launch a major offensive. The deadline is set for January 1st.

8) Education in Afghanistan

The Afghan government has announced plans to increase education spending and improve the quality of education in the country. The government has also pledged to provide scholarships to students who perform well in exams.

9) Elections in Afghanistan

The Afghan government has announced plans to hold parliamentary elections in 2018. The elections are expected to be closely contested, with several political parties vying for power.

10) Brein Karlsen

Vidar Brein Karlsen, head of the government's anti-corruption agency, has been arrested on corruption charges. The agency has been investigating high-level corruption in the government.

11) Taliban's Ambition

The Taliban has announced plans to expand its influence in the country, with its leaders predicting a major offensive in the coming months. The group has also announced plans to continue its fight against the Afghan government.

12) Human Rights Defender

A human rights defender was killed in a suicide bombing in Kabul. The defender, who was known for his work in promoting human rights, was killed along with several others.

13) Vaccination Drive

The Afghan government has launched a vaccination drive to combat polio in the country. The drive is supported by international organizations and is expected to reach millions of children.

14) Election Process

The Afghan government has announced plans to conduct presidential elections next year. The elections are expected to be closely contested, with several political figures vying for the presidency.

15) Foreign Relations

The Afghan government has held high-level meetings with several foreign countries, including the United States and China. The meetings are expected to discuss issues such as security, trade, and development.

16) Peace Negotiations

The Afghan government has announced plans to continue peace negotiations with the Taliban. The negotiations are expected to continue until the end of the year.

17) Economic Challenges

The Afghan economy is facing several challenges, including high inflation and unemployment. The government has announced plans to address these issues through various measures.

18) Security Forces

The Afghan security forces have been involved in several operations against the Taliban, with hundreds of militants killed or captured.

19) Humanitarian Aid

The Afghan government has announced plans to increase humanitarian aid to the country. The aid is expected to reach millions of people affected by the war.

20) National Security

The Afghan government has announced plans to increase security measures in the country. The measures are expected to include increased patrols and surveillance.