MoMP Worries Daesh Might Extract Mineral Riches

NEW DELHI - Female cadets say the training in India is crucial because Afghanistan does not have much space for learning military skills. A batch of 20 women who serve in the Afghan National Army is returning from the Indian capital after completing a two-year training course.

Afganistan's Ministry of Mine and Petroleum (MoMP) on Monday said that Daesh could extract minerals from mines in Jawzjan province, including gold.

Senate to Summon Officials over Durand Line Fence

KARUL - The Mozhoon Jirga or Senate on Tuesday decided to summon government officials to brief the upper house about Pakistan's fencing of the Durand Line.

Pakistan has been reportedly accepted the Durand Line in 1947 when Pakistan was created and Khyber Pakhtunkhwa and Balochistan became part of that country.

Speaking on the floor at the day’s Mozhoon Jirga member, Rahmatullah Arabzai from southern Kandahar, claimed that Afghanistan had agreed with Pakistan on installing the fence along the Durand Line. “If the government has not agreed with Pakistan, then why if does not stop fencing, the government never thinks about public issues,” he said.
