TALOQAN - Taliban insurgents have captured three districts in a single offensive near the Afghan-Pakistan border, killing at least 10 people and wounding others.

The Afghan National Army (ANA) said it was responding to insurgent attacks in the eastern Nangarhar province.

Colonel Shapoor A. Dastagir, an ANA spokesperson, said that the attacks had involved rocket-propelled grenades and roadside bombs.

Taliban leaders have not yet commented on the reported victory.

In a separate incident, a Pakistani soldier was killed and other soldiers were wounded in an attack in the northwestern Kunar province.

Emergency medical services are on their way to the site of the incident, the ANA said.

Meanwhile, the ISKP has claimed responsibility for the attack, saying it was in retaliation for the deaths of its members in a US-led operation in eastern Afghanistan.

Efforts are underway to evacuate the injured soldiers and the wounded soldier to a hospital.

The ANA has not commented on the claims made by the ISKP.

TALOQAN - Taliban insurgents have captured three districts in a single offensive near the Afghan-Pakistan border, killing at least 10 people and wounding others.

The Afghan National Army (ANA) said it was responding to insurgent attacks in the eastern Nangarhar province.

Colonel Shapoor A. Dastagir, an ANA spokesperson, said that the attacks had involved rocket-propelled grenades and roadside bombs.

Taliban leaders have not yet commented on the reported victory.

In a separate incident, a Pakistani soldier was killed and other soldiers were wounded in an attack in the northwestern Kunar province.

Emergency medical services are on their way to the site of the incident, the ANA said.

Meanwhile, the ISKP has claimed responsibility for the attack, saying it was in retaliation for the deaths of its members in a US-led operation in eastern Afghanistan.

Efforts are underway to evacuate the injured soldiers and the wounded soldier to a hospital.

The ANA has not commented on the claims made by the ISKP.

TALOQAN - Taliban insurgents have captured three districts in a single offensive near the Afghan-Pakistan border, killing at least 10 people and wounding others.

The Afghan National Army (ANA) said it was responding to insurgent attacks in the eastern Nangarhar province.

Colonel Shapoor A. Dastagir, an ANA spokesperson, said that the attacks had involved rocket-propelled grenades and roadside bombs.

Taliban leaders have not yet commented on the reported victory.

In a separate incident, a Pakistani soldier was killed and other soldiers were wounded in an attack in the northwestern Kunar province.

Emergency medical services are on their way to the site of the incident, the ANA said.

Meanwhile, the ISKP has claimed responsibility for the attack, saying it was in retaliation for the deaths of its members in a US-led operation in eastern Afghanistan.

Efforts are underway to evacuate the injured soldiers and the wounded soldier to a hospital.

The ANA has not commented on the claims made by the ISKP.