Peace Efforts and the Fresh Wave of Violence

Abdul Abad Bahrami

The militiamen organized another ambush attack targeting a Spanish guesthouse in diplomatic district of Kabul which left at least 12 people dead. At least 15 others were wounded in the attack.

An Afghan militia group at Kabul international airport which left more than 50 people dead. The recent attacks by the militias at a time of from when two countries may differ in their approach.

The militiamen targeted the airport while the Afghan government and the Afghan security forces were carrying out an operation in the area. The attacks resulted in the death of several people and the destruction of critical infrastructure. The Afghan government has condemned the attacks and vowed to continue its efforts to bring peace to the war-torn country.

The Afghan government has also announced a bounty for information leading to the arrest of the perpetrators of the attacks. The government has also called on the international community to support its efforts to bring peace to the country.

The Afghan government has also announced a bounty for information leading to the arrest of the perpetrators of the attacks. The government has also called on the international community to support its efforts to bring peace to the country.

The Afghan government has also announced a bounty for information leading to the arrest of the perpetrators of the attacks. The government has also called on the international community to support its efforts to bring peace to the country.