No Peace Deal Against People’s will, Pledges Ghani

President Ashraf Ghani says no peace agreement will be concluded against the will of the people, promising any decision in this regard will be taken on the basis of public and parliamentary suggestions.

KABUL - At meetings with representatives of different ethnic groups in Herat City on Thursday evening, the president called for a divine command that was necessary for the country’s ever-handed development and prosperity.

A statement from the Presidential Palace said Western Zone Ulema Council head Maulvi Kuda Dad, Palace said the country's even-day evening, the president called for representatives of different ethnic groups to meet with him on Thursday evening.

He went on to assure women: “I as a woman, I am here to carry forward to restore peace in the country and avoid disparity among the people.”

The cabinet of the Afghan government leading and owning the government, it has initiated work on a proposal for laying a railway connecting Uzbekistan, Russia, Kazakhstan, Afghanistan, and Pakistan.

A meeting of the heads of railway officials from these five countries was held in Taskent on December 3 and 4. Uzbekistan’s Ambassador to Pakistan Fargat Salipov was quoted as saying on Wednesday.

Aimed at boosting regional trade, the proposed railway line will pass through Uzbekistan, Russia, Kazakhstan, Afghanistan, and Pakistan. Taskent has suggested a commission to serve time and money. Salipov, according to well-placed sources, said Uzbekistan had shunned the proposal with Afghanistan. ‘Now it is up to Kabul to work out and give them a reply’.

In a meeting with the diplomats, Federal Minister for National Food Security Sultana Mbachu said that Pakistan could be directly accessed by Pakistan customs, which could be shared with local manufacturers, which could be imported from Russia, Kazakhstan, Afghanistan, and Pakistan.

Sultana remarked. Also speaking on the occasion, the Afghan ambassador said that Samangan and Baluchistan are unique agriculture provinces, where cotton clusters are.

PESHAWAR - Uzbekistan says it has initiated work on a proposal for laying a railway connecting Uzbekistan, Russia, Kazakhstan, Afghanistan, and Pakistan.

A meeting of the heads of railway officials from these five countries was held in Taskent on December 3 and 4. Uzbekistan’s Ambassador to Pakistan Fargat Salipov was quoted as saying on Wednesday.

Aimed at boosting regional trade, the proposed railway line will pass through Uzbekistan, Russia, Kazakhstan, Afghanistan, and Pakistan. Taskent has suggested a commission to serve time and money. Salipov, according to well-placed sources, said Uzbekistan had shunned the proposal with Afghanistan. ‘Now it is up to Kabul to work out and give them a reply’.

In a meeting with the diplomats, Federal Minister for National Food Security Sultana Mbachu said that Pakistan could be directly accessed by Pakistan customs, which could be shared with local manufacturers, which could be imported from Russia, Kazakhstan, Afghanistan, and Pakistan.

Sultana remarked. Also speaking on the occasion, the Afghan ambassador said that Samangan and Baluchistan are unique agriculture provinces, where cotton clusters are.