Gummen Attack, Vandalize Nuristan Radio Station

JALALABAD - unidentified gunmen attacked a local radio station in Alina in eastern Nuristan province and damaged its equipment, local officials said Sunday.

The incident happened in Noorgram district on Saturday night, said Sadaullah Hamdard, director of the radio station.

He told Pajhwok Afghan News about 10 attackers stormed the building of their radio station when a program was being aired. The attackers first blew up the antenna with explosives and damaged it partially and later they tried to torch the office.

The office did not catch fire but the attackers broke a number of computers and damaged some parts of the building.

Hamdard said one of their workers, Sadaullah Seddiqi, was taken hostage but later released.

He said he and his workers had not received any threats prior to the attack and they did not know who they were.

Alina radio has stopped broadcasting after the attack. People tried to contact the local governor and police about the incident, but failed.

However, a police official in Noorgram district, who wished to go nameless, said police were quick to reach the incident area and saved the building from burning.

He said the attackers partially destroyed the antenna of the radio station and sprayed fuel on the office of the station before they escaped.

No group has so far claimed responsibility for the incident. Alina's FM radio station was saved the building from being burnt.

3. KABUL - Ministry of Industry and Commerce says the trade and transit volume between Afghanistan and Pakistan valued at least $1 billion in the past nine months.

The Ministry of Industry and Commerce on Saturday said the trade and transit volume between Afghanistan and Pakistan has decreased by 20 percent this year.

Spokesman of the ministry, Mansoor Qayoom, said statistics from the first nine months of this year show that Afghanistan and Pakistan's trade and transit valued at least $1 billion this year, while it was $1.5 billion last year.

According to the ministry, Afghanistan's exports to Pakistan valued at least $280 million this year while the imports from Pakistan valued $880 million.

"Our trade volume has decreased with Pakistan against previous years. But our exports have increased. We want good relation with all the nations, but we will be focused on our trade interests," Qayoom told TOLOnews.

Afghanistan Chamber of Industries and Associations (ACCI) meanwhile told TOLOnews.
