755M Af's Needed to Aid Returnees, IDPs: Balkhi

KABUL - Refugees and Repatriated Ministr/Foreign Affairs said on Tuesday that the government had allocated 20 million Afghans to help refugees and internally displaced people (IDPs) but a staggering 750 million Afghans were needed for the purpose. Balkhi, who appeared before the Meshrano Jirga or Senate, said hundreds of migrant smugglers had been detained.

He said the Afghan government with its available resources could not respond to the call of refugees and IDPs.

He said 30 million people had been displaced as a result of the war and natural disasters across the country over the last four years and as far too many of today's daydreamers.

IDPs had received aid. During the period, 31.7 million refugees returned to the country and 40.099,000 refugees voluntarily returned to the country during the ongoing solar year. Currently, 92,000,000 are 1.5 million, and 820,000 refugees are being accommodated in various locations.

Lufthansa Names New Senior Director Sales for Gulf, Afghanistan & Pakistan

DURAL - Lufthansa Group has appointed Hein- Lange as senior director sales, Gulf, Afghanistan & Pa- kistan, effective January 2019. In his new role, Lange will be responsible for the commerci- al and sales activities of the Lufthansa Group Airlines, as well as their representation in the Gulf, Afghanistan and Pakistan regions.

With his 14 years of experi- ence in airline management, Lange brings a deep and wide-ranging knowledge to his new position. He practiced the aviation industry between 2004 and 2014 with a dual qualification program in the Lufthansa Group specializing in Business Administration and training as an “Airline Manager.” In 2007, Lange was assigned Manager Quality Management Outbound Service, being responsible for monitoring, annual quality level of re- served outbound service. Four years later, he was appointed manager Lufthansa Gulf and Qatari Airways Sales Strategy as a founding member of a new team that was created to accelerate the sales cooperation and integra- tion of Lufthansa, SWISS, Austrian and Brussels Airlines while being responsible for the development of a long-term supporting plan.
