IEC to Delay Presidential Elections

An IEC official said the decision has been made to bring more reforms to the electoral body.

KABUL - The Independent Election Commission (IEC) on Wednesday confirmed that there might be a delay in the upcoming presidential elections due to some certain reasons.

Hafizullah Hashemi, member of the IEC, said the commission has started the candidates registration process for the upcoming presidential elections "due to certain reasons".

According to the ministry, Baghlan, Jawzjan, Faryab, Helmand, Farah and Kunduz provinces are among the areas where Taliban has a high presence and Afghan forces have been engaged in deadly battles with the militant group in parts of the provinces.

"A Afghan security forces have killed three popular Taliban's designated governors for Helmand, Ghor and Farah. The ANDSF have also killed 20 Taliban commanders together with 11 others commandees who were belonged to the Taliban" the MoI spokesman Najib Danish said.

"The Afghan forces have killed more than 2,000 insurgents in various provinces over the past three months," he added.

Fiber Optic Network Project to Be Completed in 7 Months

KABUL - Afghanistan and China will be connected to a fiber optic network via Wakhan corridor project and Kyrgyzstan through Silk Route fiber optic network.

"We have been providing round-the-clock services to people across all 34 provinces. Compared to last year, we have saved 31% of our expenses. We are pleased to announce that AFs 9.4 billion was added to government's treasury in just six months of 1397 solar year, contributing to the state revenue. This is a truly remarkable result," the MoI spokesman Najib Danish said.
