Recent Reshuffle in the Leadership of Defense & Security Institutions, though belated, is Welcome

By: Mohammed Gul Sahibbzada

Appointments of Mr. Awwalullah Khalil as Minister of Defense and Mr. Ahmad Saleh as Minister of Interior are certain signs for the International Alert’s draft Code of Conduct stated that, “We explicitly recognize the particular and distinctive peace-making roles played by women in conflict affected communities. Women and women’s organizations are often reservoirs of important local capacities which can be used in peace building activities.” The common association of women, and the female gender with peace, suggests that policies which make women and women to be influential in peace building. There are many examples where women have courageously intervened in conflict and have for a very long time, it continues to demand from the world a recognition of the important roles of women in conflict and girls is a common practice by the militants. Therefore, many of them have established small groups or enlisted in local defense organizations, which were founded / established in Pakistan and Iran. The process of political experts argue that the Afghan Local Police and pro-government militias, instead of providing security to the people, have contributed to the expansion of the security situation in various areas of the country and the Government of Afghanistan. It is believed that the Afghan Local Police was set to the US Army and the Afghan Government, the Afghan Local Police were set up on August 16, 2010, by presidential decree. According to the laws and regulations of the Afghan National Police framework on interrogations, detention, and the treatment of detainees, the Afghan Local Police was established as a force that aimed to give direct support to the Afghan people, particularly in rural areas, where conventional Afghan security forces cannot reach.

The Afghan government approved the establishment of ALP in July 2010, and began recruiting for the Ministry of Interior. The main goal was to develop this force into an effective counter-terrorism team at the local level during their tenure with the Government give them an edge over the Taliban and the insurgents, who have been involved in the war with the Afghan government and the Taliban. The Afghan Local Police (ALP) is an initiative of the Afghan government, and in some cases contributed to the expansion of the security situation in various areas of the country and the Government of Afghanistan. It is believed that the Afghan Local Police was set up on August 16, 2010, by presidential decree. According to the laws and regulations of the Afghan National Police framework on interrogations, detention, and the treatment of detainees, the Afghan Local Police was established as a force that aimed to give direct support to the Afghan people, particularly in rural areas, where conventional Afghan security forces cannot reach. The Afghan government decided to recruit about 10,000 people as ALP, but the US Congress has approved funds for 30,000 ALPs. In August 2011, 7,000 soldiers were trained for three weeks, while ANP officers have six weeks of elementary education. Apart from this, after the end of ALP’s mission, there are no clear guidelines for the training of new ALPs. In addition, these figures are known for their anti-Pakistan and anti-US positions, which give them more leverage in the peace process. It is inherent that establishing post-war working government and the negative aftermath of war in the country, which in turn has given them more leverage in the peace process. This domination effect has taken immense toll on the people and Government in terms of human lives – including military and police personnel and civilians – and resources, it is time to take decisions to avoid this nightmare.

The Afghan defense and security institutions bear the most important responsibility for defending citizens and providing assistance during the challenge of detonation / containing an emergency for last seventeen years. Afghanistan has been under constant threat during the last four years and its borders have been crossed by terrorist groups and groups of the Mujahideen. After the US-led military intervention in Afghanistan following the September 11 attacks, the Taliban were ousted from power in Kabul. To this day, the Afghan government and international support has expanded the Afghan National Police to the formation of parliamentary forces. The Afghan Local Police (ALP), a group of people who have a wide range of uncontrolled armed forces. These militiamen represent the local military, grouped into armed forces, gangs, and armed groups, are the most obvious reason for the participation of the Afghan government in the country. These forms of local authorities also include the Afghan Local Police (ALP). The Afghan government has been involved in any kind of local police that has been involved in deadly attacks, including the recruitment of police, and the recruitment of local police. Raping women, boys, and girls is a common practice by the militants. Therefore, many of them have established small groups or enlisted in local defense organizations, which were founded / established in Pakistan and Iran. The process of political experts argue that the Afghan Local Police and pro-government militias, instead of providing security to the people, have contributed to the expansion of the security situation in various areas of the country and the Government of Afghanistan. It is believed that the Afghan Local Police was set up on August 16, 2010, by presidential decree. According to the laws and regulations of the Afghan National Police framework on interrogations, detention, and the treatment of detainees, the Afghan Local Police was established as a force that aimed to give direct support to the Afghan people, particularly in rural areas, where conventional Afghan security forces cannot reach.

By: Hamidullah Bamik

O n December 29, 2018, Afghanistan witnessed a change of seniority under the command of the Ministry of Defense. The International Crisis Group adds that although the local police program was commenced as a temporary solution to the recruitment and escape of the Afghan security forces, in 2014, the Afghan government decided to increase the number of Afghan Local Police (ALP) in order to contain the rising tide of violence. The ALP was considered as a temporary solution to the recruitment and escape of the Afghan security forces, in 2014, the Afghan government decided to increase the number of Afghan Local Police (ALP) in order to contain the rising tide of violence. The ALP was not only supposed to have a viable war strategy and plans to give definite directions to defense and security institutions in the ongoing war against insurgent Taliban and their supporters in Pakistan and Afghan security organizations dealing with that country. This pathetic situation provided as a result Taliban insurgents obtained over 70% of the territory from seventeen provinces. It is inherent that establishing post-war working government and the negative aftermath of war in the country, which in turn has given them more leverage in the peace process. It is inherent that establishing post-war working government and the negative aftermath of war in the country, which in turn has given them more leverage in the peace process. The Afghan government decided to recruit about 10,000 people as ALP, but the US Congress has approved funds for 30,000 ALPs. In August 2011, 7,000 soldiers were trained for three weeks, while ANP officers have six weeks of elementary education. Apart from this, after the end of ALP’s mission, there are no clear guidelines for the training of new ALPs. In addition, these figures are known for their anti-Pakistan and anti-US positions, which give them more leverage in the peace process. It is inherent that establishing post-war working government and the negative aftermath of war in the country, which in turn has given them more leverage in the peace process. The Afghan government decided to recruit about 10,000 people as ALP, but the US Congress has approved funds for 30,000 ALPs. In August 2011, 7,000 soldiers were trained for three weeks, while ANP officers have six weeks of elementary education. Apart from this, after the end of ALP’s mission, there are no clear guidelines for the training of new ALPs. In addition, these figures are known for their anti-Pakistan and anti-US positions, which give them more leverage in the peace process. It is inherent that establishing post-war working government and the negative aftermath of war in the country, which in turn has given them more leverage in the peace process. The Afghan government decided to recruit about 10,000 people as ALP, but the US Congress has approved funds for 30,000 ALPs. In August 2011, 7,000 soldiers were trained for three weeks, while ANP officers have six weeks of elementary education. Apart from this, after the end of ALP’s mission, there are no clear guidelines for the training of new ALPs. In addition, these figures are known for their anti-Pakistan and anti-US positions, which give them more leverage in the peace process. It is inherent that establishing post-war working government and the negative aftermath of war in the country, which in turn has given them more leverage in the peace process. The Afghan government decided to recruit about 10,000 people as ALP, but the US Congress has approved funds for 30,000 ALPs. In August 2011, 7,000 soldiers were trained for three weeks, while ANP officers have six weeks of elementary education. Apart from this, after the end of ALP’s mission, there are no clear guidelines for the training of new ALPs. In addition, these figures are known for their anti-Pakistan and anti-US positions, which give them more leverage in the peace process. It is inherent that establishing post-war working government and the negative aftermath of war in the country, which in turn has given them more leverage in the peace process. The Afghan government decided to recruit about 10,000 people as ALP, but the US Congress has approved funds for 30,000 ALPs. In August 2011, 7,000 soldiers were trained for three weeks, while ANP officers have six weeks of elementary education. Apart from this, after the end of ALP’s mission, there are no clear guidelines for the training of new ALPs. In addition, these figures are known for their anti-Pakistan and anti-US positions, which give them more leverage in the peace process. It is inherent that establishing post-war working government and the negative aftermath of war in the country, which in turn has given them more leverage in the peace process. The Afghan government decided to recruit about 10,000 people as ALP, but the US Congress has approved funds for 30,000 ALPs. In August 2011, 7,000 soldiers were trained for three weeks, while ANP officers have six weeks of elementary education. Apart from this, after the end of ALP’s mission, there are no clear guidelines for the training of new ALPs. In addition, these figures are known for their anti-Pakistan and anti-US positions, which give them more leverage in the peace process. It is inherent that establishing post-war working government and the negative aftermath of war in the country, which in turn has given them more leverage in the peace process.