Govt to Announce Peace Delegates after US-Taliban Deal: Palace

KABUL - The Afghan government will disclose the list of the peace negotiating team once the US and the Taliban finalize their peace agreement, the Presidential Palace said on Saturday, amid rumors that the talks had been agreed on a short-term ceasefire. The delay is due to the government of Afghanistan and it will be introduced simultaneously with the start of the intra-Afghan talks.

"We are ready to introduce and send our peace negotiating team when they (the Taliban) reach a final conclusion with the US delegation and show their readiness to talk with the Afghan people," said Darim Jawed Vivace, deputy spokesman for President Ashraf Ghani, adding that the talks are expected to be "long and hard.""Fury among critics"Meanwhile, Mohammad Ismail Khan, a former Mujahideen leader and a prominent member of the Jamiat-e-Islami party of Afghanistan, has alleged that the government has monopolized the peace process and said that it has not consulted the Afghan political leaders and parties about the structure of the peace negotiating team.

"From the beginning the government has been trying to decide about peace alone and it has tried to take the control of the peace process in its hand, but the Taliban rejected it and this brought challenges for the process," said Ismail Khan. "The political parties as a whole have not consulted about the list. No one knows about its structure, quantity and members. Nobody speaks about what level Afghanistan is at what stage this has been built and which people are included," he said. Ismail Khan is the deputy head of the National Islamic Movement of Afghanistan. (...More on PA5...)

Kandahar Also Bans Rupee in Local Transactions

KANDAHAR - After Nangarhar and Khost provinces, officials in southern Kandahar province have also banned the use of Pakistan rupee in buying or selling.

A gathering in this regard was held at the Governor House in Kandahar province, where provincial officials, Da Afghanistan Bank representatives, judicial, security, Haj and Religious Affairs Department officials and Ulema were present.

Addressing the event, Governor Hayatabad Hayat said that two weeks ago, who used Pakistani rupee in buying or selling, would be dealt with in accordance with the law.

He directed the Municipality to work on price quotations and publish them for the public. So people could get aware and start using local currency instead of Pakistani banknotes.

The governor asked the Da Afghanistan Bank to manage the use of local currency through advertisement so that it could be distributed among different institutions.

He said the Haj and Religious Affairs Department should promote this cause through mosques and encourage the masses to use local currency in their daily transactions.

Hayat also tasked the state-run Radio Television Afghanistan to telecast messages on the use of local currency and encourage people to the practice.

Pakistan rupee is commonly used in provinces that share a border with Afghanistan.

Hayat also tasked the Ministry of Finance to encourage the masses to use local currency.

It is worth mentioning that previous strict steps to stop the use of rupee and promote local currency.

The country has become a slaughter house for people and security forces should strongly pay attention to the Kabul-Pakistan highway," the interior minister said. (...More on PA5...)

Herat Records 20pc Rise in Honey Harvest This Year

HERAT - Agriculture officials in western Herat province on Sunday confirmed a 20 percent increase in honey harvest this year in the province.

Abdul Salam Rahman, agriculture director, told Pajhwok Afghan News that beehive production increased more than 150 tons of honey this year in the province compared to the previous year, showing a 20 percent increase.

He expressed his deep concern over the impact of low quality honey from neighboring countries which negatively impacted the country’s honey market.

He said, “Fortunately, our honey harvest reached nearly 150 tons this year, but low quality import goods have a negative impact on the agriculture of the country.”

He called for prevention of low quality honey import from neighboring countries and urged the countrymen to buy locally produced honey.

Abdul Wahid Wask, beehive association head in Upal district, was happy over the increase in honey production.

He said, “Unfortunately low quality honey is imported from Iran, Turkmenistan, China and Pakistan and one kilogram of honey is sold in Iran for 50,000 afghani which is one kilogram of sugar sold in the country. People are ready to sell one kilogram of honey with the above price.”

A number of honey producers expressed a deep concern over the impact of low quality honey to the country and urged the authorities concerned to prevent the imports.

Abdul Qarloq, deputy head of the National Islamic Movement of Afghanistan has called for prevention of supplying of security officials and asked security forces to pay attention to the Kabul-Pakistan highway.

Earlier, two military prosecutors of the Bagram prison were killed and as many wounded in Qarabagh district of Kabul.

On the other side, three Taliban leaders called for summoning of security officials and asked security forces to pay attention to the Kabul-Pakistan highway.

Mir Rahman Rahmani, Wolesi Jirga speaker, said, “Qarabagh district of Kabul province has become a slaughter house for people and security forces should strongly pay attention to the Kabul-Pakistan highway.”

He said the interior minister called for prevention of low quality honey from neighboring countries and encourage people to use local honey.

The MLA also tasked the state-run Radio Television Afghanistan to telecast messages regarding the use of local currency and encourage people to the practice.

It is increasingly clear that the European Union was not built to be a global actor. The EU is a strictly European idea, designed to bring stability and prosperity to its member countries and the wider continent. Despite the turbulent events of recent years, it was meant to mold its own destiny, leaving matters of global import to the two permanent members of the United Nations Security Council.

Under this arrangement, the EU achieved stability for its neighborhood. Western countries profited from the political and economic changes in the region, as we, the Europeans, have relied on our shared history, democratic traditions and moral commitment to multilateral and regional integration. These strengths will not ensure Europe's continued relevance. Economic change, the rise of China and the US, the EU's position, tapping into Amazon's web services is a no-brainer. KABUL - Analysts believe that Afghanistan is one of the top universities in the country and recently almost 60% of Afghan students have completed their degrees.

According to an assessment by Air Visual, the pollution is due to the burning of used papers and leaves by Kabul residents. No one comes to clean water. No one comes to ing from pneumonia. We need help to collect used papers and garbage. We need help to warm their tents and for cooking," said Fatima, Nazanin, a displaced family.

Safari’s win has sparked joys amongst Afghan nation and the world, many Afghans have praised him for his tonight’s sweet win.
