KABUL - President Ashraf Ghani, calling corruption a major factor contributing to instability in Afghanistan, has said his government had a strong will to overcome the menace. He said initial efforts at cleaning up the government had a strong will to overcome the menace. He said it was one of the major factors contributing to the problem. Afghanistan's Chief Executive Abdullah John Sepkai praised the Afghan government's anti-corruption efforts. He congratulated the president on the newly created Justice and Judicial Council. He said that the Afghan government had taken a new anti-corruption move. In a separate development, 63 suspected terrorists were held in the province, haven't commented. (Xinhua)

The statement also commented that an army officer had been killed and two others sustained injuries in a mortar blast over the past couple of years.

Meanwhile, Afghan government Chief Executive Abdullah John Sepkai visited the city of Lashkar Gah on Tuesday to inspect the security situation there.

He said the Afghan security forces are determined to clear insurgent hotspots in the northern zone next spring in order to prevent any further advancement.

"Up to 6,000 military personnel and their families are in our area of responsibility," said Bahia Jan. However, he added that several foreign fighters were given sanctuary by the Taliban in Faryab province and that they are being engaged in training as well.

He said the Afghan security forces are determined to clear insurgent hotspots in the northern zone next spring in order to prevent any further advancement.

"Up to 6,000 foreign fighters and their families are in our area of responsibility," said Bahia Jan. However, he added that several foreign fighters were given sanctuary by the Taliban in Faryab province and that they are being engaged in training as well. (Xinhua)

KABUL — General Bahia Jan, the commander of the 1st Kandahar Corps, said on Wednesday that up to 6,400 foreign fighters and their families have moved to in some provinces in the northern parts of the country.

According to Bahia Jan, the total number of militants fighting security forces in Samangan, Balkh, Jawzjan, Faryab and Faryab provinces is estimated to be around 9000.

He added that the Afghan security forces are determined to clear insurgent hotspots in the northern zone next spring in order to prevent any further advancement.

"Up to 6,000 foreign fighters and their families are in our area of responsibility," said Bahia Jan. However, he added that several foreign fighters were given sanctuary by the Taliban in Faryab province and that they are being engaged in training as well.

He said the Afghan security forces are determined to clear insurgent hotspots in the northern zone next spring in order to prevent any further advancement.

"Up to 6,000 foreign fighters and their families are in our area of responsibility," said Bahia Jan. However, he added that several foreign fighters were given sanctuary by the Taliban in Faryab province and that they are being engaged in training as well. (Xinhua)

KABUL — Afghan security forces have detained 11 personnel responsible for looting and holding hostages in the first two provinces of 34 provinces in a week-long operation launched on Wednesday.

"Counter-Narcotics Police (CNP) that the security forces have arrested three drug cases and are investigating 11 persons involved in the cases in Kabul, Farah, Nangarhar and Balkh provinces within the past one week," the Crime News, Criminal Justice Task Force of Afghanistan (CJTF) said in a statement.

They also found and seized narcotics and drugs, including 220 kg heroin and about 3,500 kg opium from the narcotics barons, confiscating a pistol and night vehicle, the statement added.

After an initial investigation, the cases were handover ed to the Central Narcotics Tribes (CNP). He said the CNP has arrested 11 persons involved in the cases in Kabul, Farah, Nangarhar and Balkh provinces. The statement added that 3,500 kg opium and 220 kg heroin were seized.

"The arrest was made by the district police of Gharzai district in Helmand province, 55 km south of Kabul, and it is the main target of Taliban militants over the past couple of years." Abdulla Mirzad said.

Abdulla Mirzad said that the Taliban have been in Helmand province for government security forces over the past several years. According to Afghan officials, according to Afghan officials.

Abdulla Mirzad was in the main target of Taliban militants over the past couple of years. Abdulla Mirzad said that the Taliban have been in Helmand province for government security forces over the past several years. According to Afghan officials.

Abdulla Mirzad was in the main target of Taliban militants over the past couple of years. Abdulla Mirzad said that the Taliban have been in Helmand province for government security forces over the past several years. According to Afghan officials. (Kabulh)

Lashkar Gah City at the Range of Taliban Rocket

600 Foreign Soldiers Sent to Northern Provinces: Police

LASHKAR GAH — Up to two dozen Taliban militants have been killed and 25 others injured in Sangin district of the southern Helmand province in Afghanistan on Wednesday according to a statement of 255 Milord Corps released here Wednesday.

Among those killed were five security personnel, 19 Taliban fighters have been killed and two others sustained injuries in a mine blast over the past couple of years.

The statement also commented that an army officer had been killed and two others sustained injuries in a mortar blast over the past couple of years.

Meanwhile, Afghan government Chief Executive Abdullah John Sepkai visited the city of Lashkar Gah on Tuesday to inspect the security situation there.

He said that the Afghan security forces are determined to clear insurgent hotspots in the northern zone next spring in order to prevent any further advancement.

"Up to 6,000 foreign fighters and their families are in our area of responsibility," said Bahia Jan. However, he added that several foreign fighters were given sanctuary by the Taliban in Faryab province and that they are being engaged in training as well.

He said the Afghan security forces are determined to clear insurgent hotspots in the northern zone next spring in order to prevent any further advancement.

"Up to 6,000 foreign fighters and their families are in our area of responsibility," said Bahia Jan. However, he added that several foreign fighters were given sanctuary by the Taliban in Faryab province and that they are being engaged in training as well. (Xinhua)

KABUL — General Bahia Jan, the commander of the 1st Kandahar Corps, said on Wednesday that up to 6,400 foreign fighters and their families have moved to in some provinces in the northern parts of the country.

According to Bahia Jan, the total number of militants fighting security forces in Samangan, Balkh, Jawzjan, Faryab and Faryab provinces is estimated to be around 9000.

He added that the Afghan security forces are determined to clear insurgent hotspots in the northern zone next spring in order to prevent any further advancement.

"Up to 6,000 foreign fighters and their families are in our area of responsibility," said Bahia Jan. However, he added that several foreign fighters were given sanctuary by the Taliban in Faryab province and that they are being engaged in training as well.

He said the Afghan security forces are determined to clear insurgent hotspots in the northern zone next spring in order to prevent any further advancement.

"Up to 6,000 foreign fighters and their families are in our area of responsibility," said Bahia Jan. However, he added that several foreign fighters were given sanctuary by the Taliban in Faryab province and that they are being engaged in training as well.