IRANIAN AMONG 3 HELD ON DRUG SMUGGLING CHARGE

KABUL - An Iranian national was among three people detained by police for allegedly smuggling 16 kilograms of drugs into Afghanistan.

Three kilograms of heroin and as much as 13 kilograms of marihuana were confiscated from two Afghan drug smugglers in three separate incidents during the past one week, a statement from the Criminal Justice Task Force said.

During the past one month, 32 individuals have been detained on charges of drug trafficking in different provinces, it said (Pajhwok).

NDS ARRESTS 7-MEMBER GROUP INVOLVED IN KABUL ATTACKS

The statement lists the names of seven Afghan nationals as Khalid, Esmatullah, Norullah, Farhad, Wali, Bahadur and Khoshhal. (Tolovews)

FOURTH AFGHAN SOLDIER EARNS THE TITLE OF RANGER FROM US RANGER SCHOOL

KARL - With help from the Security Assistance Office, Lt. Mohammad Yarghal became the fourth Afghan National Army officer to earn the title of Ranger from the United States. The 25-year-old Afghan soldier received the title of Ranger from the United States. He first attended the fourteen-month Air Assault Course at the Delarim Training Center in Afghanistan. Then, he completed the 17-week Airborne Basic Officer Leader School Course followed by a two-week Ranger Training Exercise.

The ceremony was held at the base of Basic Airborneшие, all in Khost. Yarghal, who is from the eastern city of Bayal, was inspired to join the Afghan National Army at a young age by a general from his village. In high school, he enlisted his plan to serve the country and graduated from (More on P4)(16)

AFGHAN FORCES CAPTURE 21 MILITANTS: OFFICIAL

KABUL - The National Directorate of Security (NDS) has arrested a 7-member group linked with Haqqah network that allegedly had a hand in narcotics and smuggling.

The statement said the group was arrested last Tuesday near Kabul International Airport, in a raid conducted by the agency on Tuesday. According to the statement, a number of explosives were seized from the suspects’ hideout including 140 kilograms of explosive materials, 140 kilograms of explosive materials.

(NDI)(More on P4)(17)

PAKISTAN SUFFERS CONSIDERABLE DAMAGE FROM NEW ATTACK

KABUL - The National Directorate of Security (NDS) has arrested a 7-member group linked with Haqqah network that allegedly had a hand in narcotics and smuggling.

The statement said the group was arrested last Tuesday near Kabul International Airport, in a raid conducted by the agency on Tuesday. According to the statement, a number of explosives were seized from the suspects’ hideout including 140 kilograms of explosive materials, 140 kilograms of explosive materials.

The statement lists the names of seven Afghan nationals as Khalid, Esmatullah, Norullah, Farhad, Wali, Bahadur and Khoshhal. (Tolovews)

AFGHAN FORCES CAPTURE 21 MILITANTS: OFFICIAL

KABUL - The National Directorate of Security (NDS) has arrested a 7-member group linked with Haqqah network that allegedly had a hand in narcotics and smuggling.

The statement said the group was arrested last Tuesday near Kabul International Airport, in a raid conducted by the agency on Tuesday. According to the statement, a number of explosives were seized from the suspects’ hideout including 140 kilograms of explosive materials, 140 kilograms of explosive materials.

The statement lists the names of seven Afghan nationals as Khalid, Esmatullah, Norullah, Farhad, Wali, Bahadur and Khoshhal. (Tolovews)

AFGHAN FORCES CAPTURE 21 MILITANTS: OFFICIAL

KABUL - The National Directorate of Security (NDS) has arrested a 7-member group linked with Haqqah network that allegedly had a hand in narcotics and smuggling.

The statement said the group was arrested last Tuesday near Kabul International Airport, in a raid conducted by the agency on Tuesday. According to the statement, a number of explosives were seized from the suspects’ hideout including 140 kilograms of explosive materials, 140 kilograms of explosive materials.

The statement lists the names of seven Afghan nationals as Khalid, Esmatullah, Norullah, Farhad, Wali, Bahadur and Khoshhal. (Tolovews)

AFGHAN FORCES CAPTURE 21 MILITANTS: OFFICIAL

KABUL - The National Directorate of Security (NDS) has arrested a 7-member group linked with Haqqah network that allegedly had a hand in narcotics and smuggling.

The statement said the group was arrested last Tuesday near Kabul International Airport, in a raid conducted by the agency on Tuesday. According to the statement, a number of explosives were seized from the suspects’ hideout including 140 kilograms of explosive materials, 140 kilograms of explosive materials.

The statement lists the names of seven Afghan nationals as Khalid, Esmatullah, Norullah, Farhad, Wali, Bahadur and Khoshhal. (Tolovews)

AFGHAN FORCES CAPTURE 21 MILITANTS: OFFICIAL

KABUL - The National Directorate of Security (NDS) has arrested a 7-member group linked with Haqqah network that allegedly had a hand in narcotics and smuggling.

The statement said the group was arrested last Tuesday near Kabul International Airport, in a raid conducted by the agency on Tuesday. According to the statement, a number of explosives were seized from the suspects’ hideout including 140 kilograms of explosive materials, 140 kilograms of explosive materials.

The statement lists the names of seven Afghan nationals as Khalid, Esmatullah, Norullah, Farhad, Wali, Bahadur and Khoshhal. (Tolovews)