Aram (22-Apr-20)

You're driving to explore new territory in a high-speed train. Don't you feel self-doubt today? An inner voice reminds you to beware of other people's needs! However, this advice won't likely be an effective response. A brilliant idea is that you have the chance. Just remember to temper your desire for action with kindness so you don't inadvertently hurt others' feelings.

Taurus (19-May-20)

You just might save the day with an acrobatic display of your strength. You are able to surpass your limits even when the very last minute. You adapt to any situation today, even the electric Sun-Uranus alignment means it's uncommon for you to experience anything. Sharing your original ideas encourages others to lend their support to your solution.

Gemini (21-May-20)

You are flying at top speed today, yet some situation weighing you down. The fear of failure could make you too afraid to take risks. You should keep in mind that knowing how to respond can be a very important factor that can help you get through this difficult period.

Cancer (21-June-20)

You want to express your emotional needs, but you feel that you expect people to sit up and take notice of your problems. There might even be one particular person you hope to impress, prompting you to act in a manner that is completely out of character. Your spontaneous behavior could attract the attention you seek, but will you actually do what you want?

Leo (23-July-20)

Helping others is a top priority today, but you prefer to do it in a gentle, kind manner. You won't hide anything you're feeling about people. You might even have a difficult time sharing your own emotions, as if you were using them as an insulin to light up your brain a flash of lightning.

Virgo (23-Aug-20)

There is no reason to take the fall for some one else's erratic behavior. If a cover-up doesn't work, you could try being more open about your emotions. That way, you can better express your own emotions and take responsibility for your actions.

Libra (23-Sep-20)

You want to follow your own agenda today. If something doesn't work, you might as well just earn the support of your coworkers. However, you might need a lot of support to do something. If you were to ask your friends and associates, you won't let them stand in your way. However, the Fifth House of Creativity is meant to be a beacon of insight from irresponsible Uranus, to make the most of this creative gift that's at your fingertips.

Scorpio (23-Oct-20)

You might panic for no reason today, but you're learning to keep your emotions in check. Your previous convictions. You're willing to listen to new ideas and ways of doing things, even if you're unhappy with how you've developed. You might be more apt to do things in an intuitive way, as if an ingenious idea lights up your brain a flash of lightning.

Sagittarius (22-Nov-20)

Fitting into the standard constructs of a traditional relationship is challenging because you are so different. There is no easy way to be unique. A rebellious Super-Uranus day is your opportunity, so you can count on getting recognized for your originality. Of course, there are limits to what you can do, so don't be too self-judgmental if you find it hard to change, or if you don't feel comfortable with the change.

Capricorn (22-Dec-20)

You might be the leader of a major bar or a large organization. When you feel your status is threatened, it can dramatically improve. Don't try to run in this period, as you may feel your own outcome could actually cause it to manifest itself. Thankfully, you have the patience to see an unraveling. You can recognize that you cannot stop being wrong, or that you are not being threatened. It's not every day you can be so patient. The power of positive thought still needs to be reinforced with a concrete plan and solid effort.
