Peace Plan: A Milestone in the Efforts

four weeks of diplomatic efforts, the so-called quadrilateral group, Pakistan, China, Russia, and the United States, has agreed on a roadmap for peace negotiations between the Taliban and the government of Afghanistan. Officials announced the agreement at the end of the third meeting of the four-way talks held in Islamabad. The agreement is a blueprint for a final peace settlement in Afghanistan. The agreement is a major step forward in the ongoing peace process. The officials specified their expectations to see an apparent reduction of violence and the unconditional and immediate release of all Taliban prisoners. The officials also highlighted the importance of the participation of the Taliban in the peace process. The agreement is a significant achievement for the Afghan government and the international community. The agreement is a milestone in the efforts to achieve peace in Afghanistan.
