The series of tragedies and misfortunes does not seem to end for Afghan civilians. Insecurity, which has been the main culprit in the increasing rate of misery, has not decreased even in winter. It has influenced different parts of the country in different ways and even now and then it targets the capital Kabul. It did so on Thursday, Feb-

In other words, some children are born and bred on the street, and inherit their bad luck namely anguish and misery. In other words, the Afghan society has become a prison for the kids. Their entire existence has been shaken, and their entire way of living simply on streets. Many of them do not have hope of going to school to the grave with them and forced to

The ministry said. It further noted that “great concerns are caused by the spread of influence” of Daesh. The ministry also added that it collided the importance of relations with the US in the region, including in the field of counterterrorism. In the same context, it was impossible for Afghan security forces to be successful in the war of Islamic extremism especially Daesh. The ministry said that “the Afghan security forces have inflicted major blows to Daesh,” said MoI deputy spokesman Najib Danish. It is important to note that the casualties were mostly the civilians.
