The past three decades of war could bring nothing but misfortunes to human security, social integrity and eternal state of deprivation, to Afghan refugees who have been staying in various countries, ranging from Eastem to Western, for over decades. The latter immoral policies under the guise of liberal democracy provided the refugees with basic living necessities and great deal of liberty. Nevertheless, the former being either Islamic democrats (Pakistan) or Democratic states (Iran) hardly provided a comfortable space and facility.

Pakistan has been a hospitable country, hosting scores of legal and illegal immigrants. According to the UNHCR, 1.6 million Afghan refugees have been recorded in Pakistan where most of them are in Sindh and Punjab provinces. About five million illegal immigrants have been residing in different cities of Pakistan for more than three decades. To complement the UNHCR’s efforts and those of other international partners, the government has developed a series of Afghan refugees’ Protection of Registration (PoR) cards until the end of 2015, issued birth certificates for 800,000 Afghan refugee children, provided land for several refugee villages, and given refugees access to public schools and health clinics. Apparently, the refugees in Pakistan enjoy certain degree of freedom and right to live as human beings. As a result, the Afghan refugees have used this right to enhance their living standards, and have set up small businesses in Pakistan. The UNHCR reported that in 2012, at least 28,000 Afghan refugees were involved in small businesses, which was the highest number ever recorded in Pakistan. As a result, the Afghan refugees have been able to support their families, and have become a pillar of the Afghan economy.

However, the Afghan refugees in Pakistan have been deprived of their basic human rights. The Afghan refugees have been denied the right to freedom of movement, the right to freedom of religion, especially the right to the freedom of expression, the right to access to education, and the right to access to the law. The Afghan refugees have been denied the right to vote, the right to own property, and the right to the right to social security.

The Afghan refugees in Pakistan have been denied the right to freedom of movement. The Afghan refugees have been denied the right to freedom of religion, especially the right to the freedom of expression, the right to access to education, and the right to access to the law. The Afghan refugees have been denied the right to vote, the right to own property, and the right to the right to social security.

The Afghan refugees in Pakistan have been denied the right to freedom of movement. The Afghan refugees have been denied the right to freedom of religion, especially the right to the freedom of expression, the right to access to education, and the right to access to the law. The Afghan refugees have been denied the right to vote, the right to own property, and the right to the right to social security.

The Afghan refugees in Pakistan have been denied the right to freedom of movement. The Afghan refugees have been denied the right to freedom of religion, especially the right to the freedom of expression, the right to access to education, and the right to access to the law. The Afghan refugees have been denied the right to vote, the right to own property, and the right to the right to social security.

The Afghan refugees in Pakistan have been denied the right to freedom of movement. The Afghan refugees have been denied the right to freedom of religion, especially the right to the freedom of expression, the right to access to education, and the right to access to the law. The Afghan refugees have been denied the right to vote, the right to own property, and the right to the right to social security.

The Afghan refugees in Pakistan have been denied the right to freedom of movement. The Afghan refugees have been denied the right to freedom of religion, especially the right to the freedom of expression, the right to access to education, and the right to access to the law. The Afghan refugees have been denied the right to vote, the right to own property, and the right to the right to social security.

The Afghan refugees in Pakistan have been denied the right to freedom of movement. The Afghan refugees have been denied the right to freedom of religion, especially the right to the freedom of expression, the right to access to education, and the right to access to the law. The Afghan refugees have been denied the right to vote, the right to own property, and the right to the right to social security.

The Afghan refugees in Pakistan have been denied the right to freedom of movement. The Afghan refugees have been denied the right to freedom of religion, especially the right to the freedom of expression, the right to access to education, and the right to access to the law. The Afghan refugees have been denied the right to vote, the right to own property, and the right to the right to social security.

The Afghan refugees in Pakistan have been denied the right to freedom of movement. The Afghan refugees have been denied the right to freedom of religion, especially the right to the freedom of expression, the right to access to education, and the right to access to the law. The Afghan refugees have been denied the right to vote, the right to own property, and the right to the right to social security.