KABUL - A list sent to the media by the Ministry of Trade, shows that a number of companies, government officials, and others are functioning at 50 percent power. Among those listed as being inordinately delayed in payment of goods are: President General Abdul Rashid Dostum, who the list says is a number of AIPs, and influential political figures - who collectively owe at least three AIPs. Businessman Nasiruddin Tawashi said a number of his big customers are not paying their bills and when they do, the bills are at least 50 percent in arrears. They said they have no choice but to scale down their production.

Balkh Activists Call for Govt. Action Against Insurgency

KABUL - Religious scholars and activists have called for military action on Saturday against insurgents, who are placing a heavy burden on the people.

The incident occurred in a district of Jowzjan and do not have any information on the incident in question.

UK Drops Claims Over Iraq, Balkh Activists Call for Govt. Action Against Insurgency

KABUL - The defence ministry has said that Dar Afghan special forces' night raiding in eastern Nangarhar province is misused in this action. The ministry said that the army has been called to clamp down on the activities of illegal armed groups and on insurgents. The government must prevent terrorist movements which threaten security and stability of the country. This follows an investigation into illegal armed groups and on insurgents.

The incident occurred in the district of Jowzjan and do not have any information on the incident in question.

UK Drops Claims Over Iraq, Balkh Activists Call for Govt. Action Against Insurgency

KABUL - The former Afghan Prime Minister Najibullah Dostum was handed over to the Royal Turkmenistan Army.

Eshchi Questions For His Administration’s Misuse of Power

KABUL - The former Afghan Prime Minister Najibullah Dostum was handed over to the Royal Turkmenistan Army on Saturday after the government confirmed that he was not killed. The ministry said that the decision was taken in the interest of the country and the interests of the country.

In response to the claim, a senior government official said that the decision was taken in the interest of the country and the interests of the country.

UK Drops Claims Over Iraq, Balkh Activists Call for Govt. Action Against Insurgency

KABUL - The former Afghan Prime Minister Najibullah Dostum was handed over to the Royal Turkmenistan Army.

Eshchi Questions For His Administration’s Misuse of Power

KABUL - The former Afghan Prime Minister Najibullah Dostum was handed over to the Royal Turkmenistan Army on Saturday after the government confirmed that he was not killed. The ministry said that the decision was taken in the interest of the country and the interests of the country.

In response to the claim, a senior government official said that the decision was taken in the interest of the country and the interests of the country.

UK Drops Claims Over Iraq, Balkh Activists Call for Govt. Action Against Insurgency

KABUL - The former Afghan Prime Minister Najibullah Dostum was handed over to the Royal Turkmenistan Army.

Eshchi Questions For His Administration’s Misuse of Power

KABUL - The former Afghan Prime Minister Najibullah Dostum was handed over to the Royal Turkmenistan Army on Saturday after the government confirmed that he was not killed. The ministry said that the decision was taken in the interest of the country and the interests of the country.

In response to the claim, a senior government official said that the decision was taken in the interest of the country and the interests of the country.