4 December

Agriculture

Agricultural sectors are among the most threatened. The government, the World Bank and CARE International, among others, are working on developing agricultural practices to increase yields and improve resilience.()

2 December

Security

The security situation in the country remains tense, with ongoing conflicts and a growing number of internally displaced people (IDPs). The government is working with international partners to improve security measures and provide assistance to those displaced.()

---

February 12, 2017

Afghan army soldiers, in the capital Kabul, killed four people -- two critically. (Pajhwok)