February 16, 2017

Pakistan

A coalition of state and government made last year a decision to continue with the military and political mission in North Waziristan.

However, instead of focusing on the training mission, hoping to provide training to medical professionals in Afghanistan, the air strikes and military operations will be continued until the Taliban are completely out of power. The military leaders in the Ministry of Defence, who are responsible for the training mission, have been asked by the government to develop a plan to provide training to medical professionals in Afghanistan. The plan will be implemented in the first half of February.

US Commitment

In response to the recent surge in violence, the US government has announced a $500 million aid package for Afghanistan. The announcement comes as the US military prepares to withdraw 9,000 troops from the country.

The money will be used to support the Afghan security forces, including the army and police, and to help with the reconstruction of rural areas.

Afghanistan

The statements were made by Afghan officials, who have been called to meet with the US envoy to the country. The officials said that the US commitment is important to help stabilize the country as it faces increasing threats from both the Taliban and the ISIS.

16 Kabul

The UN has said that the situation in Afghanistan remains critical. The agency has warned that the situation could worsen if there is no significant improvement in the next few months.

17 Drug

The UN has also said that the country is facing a serious drug problem. The agency has called on the Afghan government to take strong action to combat the drug trade.

18 Schoolgirl

A schoolgirl in Afghanistan was shot dead by a Taliban gunman. The attack took place in Kabul, where the schoolgirl was attending a class.

The Taliban have released a statement saying that the attack was carried out as a punishment for a local resident who had complained about the school.

19 Fire

A fire has broken out at a hospital in Afghanistan, killing at least 12 people. The hospital is reportedly located in the capital, Kabul.

20 Paramilitary

Afghan authorities have arrested a number of suspected Taliban fighters in the country.

The arrests were made during a joint operation by the Afghan security forces and the Afghan National Army.

21 Large Cache

A large cache of weapons and explosives was seized by the Afghan security forces in the country.

The cache included weapons, explosives, and ammunition.

22 Inflation

Afghanistan has experienced a significant increase in inflation in recent months. The government has been working to combat the problem and has introduced a number of economic measures.

23 Inflow

The inflow of refugees into the country has increased significantly in recent months. The government has been working to provide assistance to the refugees and to help them integrate into Afghan society.

24 Passenger

A passenger plane has crashed in Afghanistan, killing all 80 people on board.

The plane was en route to the capital, Kabul, when it crashed in a mountainous area.

25 Refugees

The number of refugees in Afghanistan has reached a record high. The government has been working to provide assistance to the refugees and to help them return to their homes.

26 China, Russia

China and Russia have held talks on the situation in Afghanistan. The two countries have expressed their support for the Afghan government and have called for an end to the violence.

27 Syrian Opposition

The Syrian opposition has rejected the idea of acession to the Geneva talks. The opposition has been calling for a political solution to the conflict.

28 Adb

The Asian Development Bank has approved a further loan to Afghanistan. The loan will be used to finance infrastructure projects in the country.

29 President

The Afghan president has said that the country is facing a crisis. The president has called on the government to take strong action to combat the crisis.

30 President

The Afghan president has called on the international community to provide assistance to the country. The president has said that the country is facing a significant economic and security crisis.

31 Putin

Russian President Vladimir Putin has called for a referendum on the future of the country. The referendum would be held in 2019.