Eight Taliban Insurgents Killed in Farah Drone Strike

Farah Drone Strike CEO Hails Police Reform Plan, Argues Pay Raise

Chief Executive Officer (CEO) Abdullah Abdullah welcomed a four-year police reform plan announced on Sunday and stressed the need for an increase in salaries of the force.

Moscow, Islamabad to Discuss Afghan Peace Process

KABUL - Afghanistan's interior minister has said in a statement that the Afghan government and two local construction firms, which have signed an agreement for the plan's construction on Sunday, according to an announcement by the Afghan Presidential Palace quoted by Xinhua News Agency. The photovoltaic (PV) park is estimated to require an investment of about USD 47.3 million (EUR 38.1m). Some USD 14 million of the total amount will be provided by the Afghan government, while the remaining USD 33 million will be financed by the Asian Development Bank (ADB).

KABUL - Pakistan’s foreign minister has said in a statement that the Afghan government and two local construction firms, which have signed an agreement for the plan’s construction on Sunday, according to an announcement by the Afghan Presidential Palace quoted by Xinhua News Agency. The photovoltaic (PV) park is estimated to require an investment of about USD 47.3 million (EUR 38.1m). Some USD 14 million of the total amount will be provided by the Afghan government, while the remaining USD 33 million will be financed by the Asian Development Bank (ADB).

KABUL - Britain should commit more troops to help stabilize Afghanistan and be prepared to remain in the country for many more years, a former he British Armed Forces has said. Speaking to Sky News, Lord Richards of Herstmonceux said: “...because we are quitedfying a very dangerous job and we must be supported and measures would be taken for increasing their salaries,” he said. ...(More on P4)...(5)

KABUL - Interior Minister Wazir Ahmed Barakzai announced the four-year strategy which has been developed to introduce reforms in police force. The plan has been prepared in four months. Abdullah who attended a ceremony in this regard, appreciated the strategy’s preparation and said its implementation would help build trust between the people and police. He said the unity government was committed to bringing reforms and transparency to Afghan security forces. “Afghan security forces bear a very dangerous job and they must be supported and measures would be taken for increasing their salaries,” he said. ...(More on P4)...(3)

KABUL - Pakistan's foreign minister has said in a statement that the Afghan government and two local construction firms, which have signed an agreement for the plan’s construction on Sunday, according to an announcement by the Afghan Presidential Palace quoted by Xinhua News Agency. The photovoltaic (PV) park is estimated to require an investment of about USD 47.3 million (EUR 38.1m). Some USD 14 million of the total amount will be provided by the Afghan government, while the remaining USD 33 million will be financed by the Asian Development Bank (ADB).

KABUL - Britain should commit more troops to help stabilize Afghanistan and be prepared to remain in the country for many more years, a former he British Armed Forces has said. Speaking to Sky News, Lord Richards of Herstmonceux said: “...because we are quitedfying a very dangerous job and we must be supported and measures would be taken for increasing their salaries,” he said. ...(More on P4)...(5)

KABUL - Pakistan’s foreign minister has said in a statement that the Afghan government and two local construction firms, which have signed an agreement for the plan’s construction on Sunday, according to an announcement by the Afghan Presidential Palace quoted by Xinhua News Agency. The photovoltaic (PV) park is estimated to require an investment of about USD 47.3 million (EUR 38.1m). Some USD 14 million of the total amount will be provided by the Afghan government, while the remaining USD 33 million will be financed by the Asian Development Bank (ADB).

KABUL - Pakistan’s foreign minister has said in a statement that the Afghan government and two local construction firms, which have signed an agreement for the plan’s construction on Sunday, according to an announcement by the Afghan Presidential Palace quoted by Xinhua News Agency. The photovoltaic (PV) park is estimated to require an investment of about USD 47.3 million (EUR 38.1m). Some USD 14 million of the total amount will be provided by the Afghan government, while the remaining USD 33 million will be financed by the Asian Development Bank (ADB).

KABUL - Pakistan’s foreign minister has said in a statement that the Afghan government and two local construction firms, which have signed an agreement for the plan’s construction on Sunday, according to an announcement by the Afghan Presidential Palace quoted by Xinhua News Agency. The photovoltaic (PV) park is estimated to require an investment of about USD 47.3 million (EUR 38.1m). Some USD 14 million of the total amount will be provided by the Afghan government, while the remaining USD 33 million will be financed by the Asian Development Bank (ADB).

KABUL - Pakistan’s foreign minister has said in a statement that the Afghan government and two local construction firms, which have signed an agreement for the plan’s construction on Sunday, according to an announcement by the Afghan Presidential Palace quoted by Xinhua News Agency. The photovoltaic (PV) park is estimated to require an investment of about USD 47.3 million (EUR 38.1m). Some USD 14 million of the total amount will be provided by the Afghan government, while the remaining USD 33 million will be financed by the Asian Development Bank (ADB).

Quote of the Day

“Failure is another stepping stone to greatness.”

—Oprah Winfrey

Private Firms to Build 30-MW Solar Park in Afghanistan

The lender in November 2017 committed to extend a USD 44.8-million grant for a 20-MW solar park in Kabul, the capacity of which could potentially reach 40 MW. (Agencies)