Government Rejection of Reports on Child Soldiers in Afghanistan

KABUL - The Afghan government has dismissed reports on the presence of child soldiers in the country, a deputy police chief and intelligence official said on Saturday.

There were over 500 reports and applications from 127 countries for the 2012 Global Teacher Prize which generated a huge amount of media interest around the world.

The winner is expected to be announced on March 13 in Dubai and each of the top 10 finalists will be featured by the organization.

The demanded ransom or any other governmental commitment to fully implement its Action Plan to end and prevent the recruitment and use of children in international armed conflicts.

A statement, released by the Office of the Special Representative of the UN Secretary General for Children and Armed Conflict, said the report, released by the UN Office of the Special Representative of the UN Secretary General for Children and Armed Conflict on Friday, termed the Afghan government’s commitment "...inadequate (More on P4)..."

KABUL - Military crackdown against Taliban in the northern Baghlan and west of Kunduz provinces have claimed the lives of 35 militants over two days.

A total of 15 Taliban militants were killed in Baghlan, including the top three commanders of the Haqqani network, who were covertly operating as documents in the current war against the Taliban.

ICRC Resumes Operations in Hazni City after Release of Workers

ICRC has resumed operations in Hazni City, near Kabul, after the release of five ICRC staff members.

The ICRC staffers, who were detained three days ago, were released on Friday by unidentified gunmen on the outskirts of Ghazni City.

The five ICRC workers, who had been abducted by unidentified gunmen near the city of Ghazni, started their activities on Friday morning.

The ICRC office in the capital Kabul welcomed the release of the ICRC officials, saying the expiration of the government’s mandate to establish a separate peace and security commission was a key factor in the release.

Tribal Elder Stabbed to Death, Daesh Fighter Captured

A tribal elder has been stabbed to death in the Pashawar district of northeastern Faryab province and an Islamic State militant has been captured in western Ghir, officials said on Wednesday.

The slain tribal elder, Abdal Quirl Qulink, had been living in the Bocha area of the Murghab district of Ferozkoh.

He said Bai was a tribal elder and his kin were displaced from their homes.

The militants had been killed in Ghir, speaking to The Associated Press by Abdul Hanif Fard, a relative of the slain elder.

No child soldier exists in the war-torn country, the deputy police chief for Logar said.

Serious National Security Incident Happening in the City of Ghazni

There were reports of a serious national security incident happening in the city of Ghazni, which is situated in the central part of the country.

The city is known for its strategic location and its role in the transit of goods.

Migrants Arrive in Kabul

Kabul - Afghan government’s committee for the return of Afghans from abroad announced on Thursday that over 5,000 Afghan migrants from 127 countries have arrived in Kabul.

There were over 5,000 Afghans from other countries who had been stranded in the country’s border areas.

AFGHANISTAN - A female Afghan vice president reiterated the Afghan government’s commitment to fully implement its Action Plan to end and prevent the recruitment and use of children in international armed conflicts.

The organization said in a statement on Wednesday that the 10 finalists will be announced on March 13 in Dubai and each of the top 10 finalists will be featured by the organization.

The winner is expected to be announced on March 13 in Dubai and each of the top 10 finalists will be featured by the organization.

The demanded ransom or any other governmental commitment to fully implement its Action Plan to end and prevent the recruitment and use of children in international armed conflicts.

A statement, released by the Office of the Special Representative of the UN Secretary General for Children and Armed Conflict, said the report, released by the UN Office of the Special Representative of the UN Secretary General for Children and Armed Conflict on Friday, termed the Afghan government’s commitment "...inadequate (More on P4)..."

KABUL - Military crackdown against Taliban in the northern Baghlan and west of Kunduz provinces have claimed the lives of 35 militants over two days.

A total of 15 Taliban militants were killed in Baghlan, including the top three commanders of the Haqqani network, who were covertly operating as documents in the current war against the Taliban.

ICRC has resumed operations in Hazni City, near Kabul, after the release of five ICRC staff members.

The ICRC staffers, who were detained three days ago, were released on Friday by unidentified gunmen on the outskirts of Ghazni City.

The five ICRC workers, who had been abducted by unidentified gunmen near the city of Ghazni, started their activities on Friday morning.

The ICRC office in the capital Kabul welcomed the release of the ICRC officials, saying the expiration of the government’s mandate to establish a separate peace and security commission was a key factor in the release.

Tribal Elder Stabbed to Death, Daesh Fighter Captured

A tribal elder has been stabbed to death in the Pashawar district of northeastern Faryab province and an Islamic State militant has been captured in western Ghir, officials said on Wednesday.

The slain tribal elder, Abdal Quirl Qulink, had been living in the Bocha area of the Murghab district of Ferozkoh.

He said Bai was a tribal elder and his kin were displaced from their homes.

The militants had been killed in Ghir, speaking to The Associated Press by Abdul Hanif Fard, a relative of the slain elder.

No child soldier exists in the war-torn country, the deputy police chief for Logar said.

Serious National Security Incident Happening in the City of Ghazni

There were reports of a serious national security incident happening in the city of Ghazni, which is situated in the central part of the country.

The city is known for its strategic location and its role in the transit of goods.

Migrants Arrive in Kabul

Kabul - Afghan government’s committee for the return of Afghans from abroad announced on Thursday that over 5,000 Afghan migrants from 127 countries have arrived in Kabul.

There were over 5,000 Afghans from other countries who had been stranded in the country’s border areas.

AFGHANISTAN - A female Afghan vice president reiterated the Afghan government’s commitment to fully implement its Action Plan to end and prevent the recruitment and use of children in international armed conflicts.

The organization said in a statement on Wednesday that the 10 finalists will be announced on March 13 in Dubai and each of the top 10 finalists will be featured by the organization.

The winner is expected to be announced on March 13 in Dubai and each of the top 10 finalists will be featured by the organization.

The demanded ransom or any other governmental commitment to fully implement its Action Plan to end and prevent the recruitment and use of children in international armed conflicts.

A statement, released by the Office of the Special Representative of the UN Secretary General for Children and Armed Conflict, said the report, released by the UN Office of the Special Representative of the UN Secretary General for Children and Armed Conflict on Friday, termed the Afghan government’s commitment "...inadequate (More on P4)..."