Juvenile Delinquency

Among the different trends of crimes, Juvenile Delinquency is considered one of the major problems for the society. Juvenile Delinquency is basically an anti-social, illegal or criminal behavior on the part of youngsters or minors. The term youngsters or adolescents has refer to everyone in the age of 18. Youngsters are basically concerned as the backbone of society and the future of a society wholly depends on the potential of its youngsters. If they are motivated towards the improvement of the society and are optimistic about the socio- political scenario and have congenial attitude towards the prevailing social, political and economic setups, they can prove beneficial for the society as a whole. But if they are pessimistic, have negative approach towards the socio-political scenario and have condescending attitude towards the socio-economic setup, they tend to be the problems for the entire society; the problems which are ultimately expected to be the major causes for delinquency. Juvenile Delinquency is always a cause of panic for a society because of the fact that it indicates the deterioration of the society as the juvenile delinquents are being to serious criminals in future if managed improperly.

The causes of juvenile delinquency can be linked with the general theories of the causes of the crimes but all the theories that hold true for the crimes as a whole can never stand true for juvenile delinquency all the times as the juveniles do not acquire the same characteristics like that of the mature people. They differ from the grownups in their attitude, psychology and emotional intelligence. Therefore, they have to be dealt in a different manner; even the punishments that are suggested by the courts for the crimes of the adults cannot be applied in the cases of the juveniles. Some theories say that the criminal crimes can really put a society on threshold of destruction juvenile Delinquency is always a cause of panic for a society because of the fact that it indicates the deterioration of the society as the juvenile delinquents are going to be serious criminals in future if managed improperly.

The reasons and motivations for wars are different. It should be noted that there may be different factors that are present during the war and the situation during the war may demand a different approach for the war. It should be noted that the reasons and motivations for wars are different.

The motivations may differ, but there should be motivation. War is not a new concept in human society; rather they have been part of different phases of history. But in the modern world of ours it has become more lethal. Earlier human societies were not very complex and even their systems were not as many. Today human societies are very complex and they have very complicated systems to take care of different issues. Moreover, mankind has developed in science and technology, and has been advanced in the field of modern weaponry, making wars more possible and more lethal. The main point is that the need for wars and in nuclear wars which if not controlled properly can really kill the entire humanity.
