Afghan security forces will regroup and beef up security operations in the north of the country.

The Afghan government is committed to covering all areas of the country.
The Afghan army has lost 15 soldiers and three officers so far during the firefight in the north.

Afghanistan

Pakistan announced on Thursday that six militants were killed in a clash between Afghan and Taliban forces. The announcement was made by Pakistan's Inter-Services Public Relations (ISPR).

The ISPR said in a statement that six milita-tians were killed in the clash in Afghanistan.

The Afghan government has not yet commented on the report.

The Pakistan government said that Pakistan's military forces have been fighting Taliban militants in the region for months.

Pakistan

Pakistan's security forces are now on the verge of recapturing the Taliban stronghold in Afghanistan.

The Afghan government has urged Pakistan to stop supporting the Taliban and to help in the struggle against terrorism.

However, Pakistan has denied supporting the Taliban and said it is fighting against terrorism.

Pakistan's Foreign Minister Khawaja Asif said on Thursday that Pakistan will not allow any terror attacks from its territory.
