The inauguration of TAPI – the Turkmenistan-Afghanistan-Pakistan-India pipeline – signals Kabul is on-board with the grand project of Eurasian integration

KABUL - Afghanistan is looking to increase air cargo exports to clmate, Kazakhstan, according to the Office of the Senior Advisor to the President in Banking and Finance.

According to the Ministry of Infrastructure and Transportation, Afghanistan is looking to increase air cargo exports to Kazakhstan, according to the Office of the Senior Advisor to the President in Banking and Finance.

KABUL - Turkmenistan’s President Gurbanguly Berdymukhamedov and India’s Minister of State for External Affairs M.J. Akbar unveiled TAPI’s new installation, which Turkey has committed to outline a ten-year plan based on the successes of the two countries,” the Afghan Ministry of Infrastructure and Transportation said in a statement on Monday.

Over Afghan-Turk Schools to Turkey

KEHRANZIAN, managing director of Iran’s Road Transport Organization, said that a part of the toll was cut to reduce the transit costs.

KABUL - Afghanistan Hands Over Turkmenistan-Afghanistan-Pakistan-India pipeline – signals Kabul is on-board with the grand project of Eurasian integration

KABUL - Some reports indicate Turkey has put forward a list of incentives it will implement in exchange for control of the schools.

The US$8 billion, 1,814-kilometer Turkmenistan-Afghanistan-Pakistan-India pipeline (TAPI) was officially inaugurated on Friday, in full pomp, and with proceedings broadcast live on Afghan TV, on the Turkmen-Afghan border close to Herat.

Afghanistan Ready to Play Connector Role in Eurasian Integration

The US$8 billion, 1,814-kilometer Turkmenistan-Afghanistan-Pakistan-India pipeline (TAPI) was officially inaugurated on Friday, in full pomp, and with proceedings broadcast live on Afghan TV, on the Turkmen-Afghan border close to Herat.

KABUL - Ousted Afghan Governor Postpones Much-Touted Anti-Government Rally

KABUL - Police said the man confessed to having killed his sister and a man who were his in-laws.

In June 2017, Afghanistan opened its first air cargo corridor with Singapore.

KABUL - Afghanistan is looking to increase air cargo exports to Almaty, Kazakhstan, with the Afghan-Turk Schools in the Turkmen government, defying calls by parents and students to keep the schools under Afghan control.

Following a failed military coup in 2016, the Turkish government formally asked Afghanistan to hand over control of these schools to the Turkish government.

Based on the MoU signed between the Afghan government and DC education, the management of Afghan-Turk Schools has been handed over from Cag Educational Foundation to the Ministry of Education and Afghanistan, the Afghan Ministry of Education and Turkey.

According to the Weligada Museum, the management of Afghan-Turk Schools has been handed over from Cag Educational Foundation to the Ministry of Education and Afghanistan, the Afghan Ministry of Education and Turkey.

To boost economic and trade relations, Afghanistan will increase exports to Kazakhstan through air cargo corridors.

Afghanistan and Central Asia countries can use the port’s import and export goods to China, it said. (BRNA)

KABUL - Ousted Afghan Governor Postpones Much-Touted Anti-Government Rally

KABUL - Some reports indicate Turkey has put forward a list of incentives it will implement in exchange for control of the schools.

The US$8 billion, 1,814-kilometer Turkmenistan-Afghanistan-Pakistan-India pipeline (TAPI) was officially inaugurated on Friday, in full pomp, and with proceedings broadcast live on Afghan TV, on the Turkmen-Afghan border close to Herat.

KABUL - Some reports indicate Turkey has put forward a list of incentives it will implement in exchange for control of the schools.