MAMANA - Taliban militants allegedly shot dead six members of a family, parents and their four daughters, inside their home in Khilistan district of northern Faryab province, an official said on Monday.

The security official, who spoke on the condition of anonymity, told Pajhwok Afghan News the incident took place in Bandar area of the district on Sunday night. He said the couple and their four children were killed by militants during an operation that ended Monday in connection with the drugs racket and weapons discovery.

Mullah Sabir, former district head of the provincial council, confirmed the incident and identified the victims as three Afghan police officers, one police chief, and two plain-clothed police personnel.

The provincial police commandment in a statement said the cache was discovered during an operation conducted in Bandar district.

The statement further added that the cache includes several types of ammunition and heavy ammunitions including artillery rounds.

Sahil Qayem, the police chief of Bandar, Sahil Qayem said the militants were looking to use the weapons to carry out a series of attacks in the district.

Hafizullah, the head of the provincial police, said that he had ordered the arrest of the four平-time police officer chief. Sahil Qayem.

The anti-government armed militi­ants - mainly Taliban - had also seized more than 1000 weapons which had also seized more recently.
